ACADEMICS — MAIN TENT OF THE COLLEGE SHOW

Every show has its main attraction.

At Fort Hays State the Big Show is academics—the pursuit of quality education. The college endeavors to produce high-caliber students equipped to meet the complex demands of today's world.

Each year many people work behind the scenes and in the spotlight to combine talents for the development of the scholastic program.

Courses are evaluated and changes introduced. Both administration and faculty extend intensive efforts to spur FHS scholars to greater accomplishment. Students study, strive and achieve.

These factors result in intriguing feature performances . . . inside the main tent.

Cunningham Heads Show for 17 Years

Completing his seventeenth year as president of Fort Hays State, Dr. M. C. Cunningham has guided the college show through the years of its most rapid development. Since he came in 1949, enrollment has nearly quintupled and the number of faculty members has more than doubled.

Coming to FHS from the dean of the faculty's chair at Northwest Missouri State College in Maryville, Dr. Cunningham has gained national prominence as an educator and administrator.

He was a member of a group of educators sent by the United States to study the educational system of Pakistan in the spring of 1964.

During his career he has served as a high school English teacher, coach, principal and superintendent; director of financial accounting in the office of the Missouri State Department of Education; instructor, chairman of the education department and eventually dean of the college at Northwest Missouri State College.

Striving to give Fort Hays State a reputation as the friendly college where students go to study and learn, Dr. Cunningham has a broad understanding of and background in education. He is active in a number of national education organizations, including the National Education Assn. and the American Assn. of School Administrators.

New Library, Power Plant Assured

Projects Okayed by Regents Gain State Approval

Two Fort Hays State building projects approved by the Board of Regents moved closer to reality this year.

Construction on a new library, okayed last year by the state legislature, began with completion set for January, 1967. The $1,500,000 structure, styled similarly to Malloy Hall, will more than triple library space.

Money was also made available for a new power plant to replace the college's over-aged boilers. Completion of the plant was tentatively scheduled for within the year.

Besides requesting state appropriations for institutions of higher learning, the Board of Regents, appointed by the governor, sets policies and approves budgets.

Taking a moment before boarding the bus for Kansas Gov. William Avery's tour of the campus, President Cunningham, a man familiar with problems of increased enrollment, relates progress and needs of the college.

Administrators Concerned With Students' Needs

Today's collegians are waging a search for purpose and understanding critical to the future of mankind. Seeing the world in its current state of unrest and turmoil, they want to know how it can be bettered and what they can contribute toward this betterment.

Recognizing the uncertainty confronting college students, administrators at Fort Hays State push continually to help them clarify their purposes in life, to develop a compassion for other cultures and to gain a perspective of the broad scope of the biological, physical and social sciences and the interrelationship of these areas.

To generate in the student a feeling of belonging and to produce a friendly environment in which he can work are goals of the administration.

Their task is not always easy in the face of soaring enrollment and subsequent crowded conditions, but it is one which they tackle and pursue energetically.

Proud of their accomplishments and undaunted by failures, they work tirelessly to make FHS a productive organ in complex contemporary society.

FHS Officials Toil Behind the Scenes

Supporting the administration but frequently working behind the scenes are those individuals who handle the college's recruitment, public relations and financial aids for students.

One of the many personal and productive duties of those persons managing Field Services is participation both on and off the campus in the annual Career Day which provides help and guidance for high school seniors.

People behind college publications build the FHS image through news and publicity.

Through the various scholarships and loans made available by the student aids and endowment offices, needy and promising students receive the help necessary to attend college.

Disagreeable weather greets students on campus election day.

Artman, Ethel: Asst. Prof., Exec. Sec. of Student Aids; Burnett, Hugh: Prof. of Pol. Sci., Dir. of Field Services; Collier, Kent: Asst. Prof. of Pol. Sci., Exec. Sec. of Endowment Assn.

Huffman, Ralph: Assoc. Prof. of Ind. Arts, Asst. Dir. of Field Services; Johnson, Jerry: Asst. Prof. of Pol. Sci., Asst. Dir. of Admissions; Tow, Ted: Asst. Prof. of Journalism, Dir. of News and Publications.

Rogers, R. Lynn: Instructor, Asst. Dir. of Memorial Union.

Whether one be a college president or merely an infrequent visitor to the campus, he may take advantage of the facilities and services of Memorial Union.

Plans Nearly Set For Union Addition

Pending approval of federal loan funds and letting of contract, construction will begin this summer on an addition to Memorial Union.

To more than double current space, the structure will spread to the south and west of the present union and will provide additional dining facilities, meeting rooms and basement space.

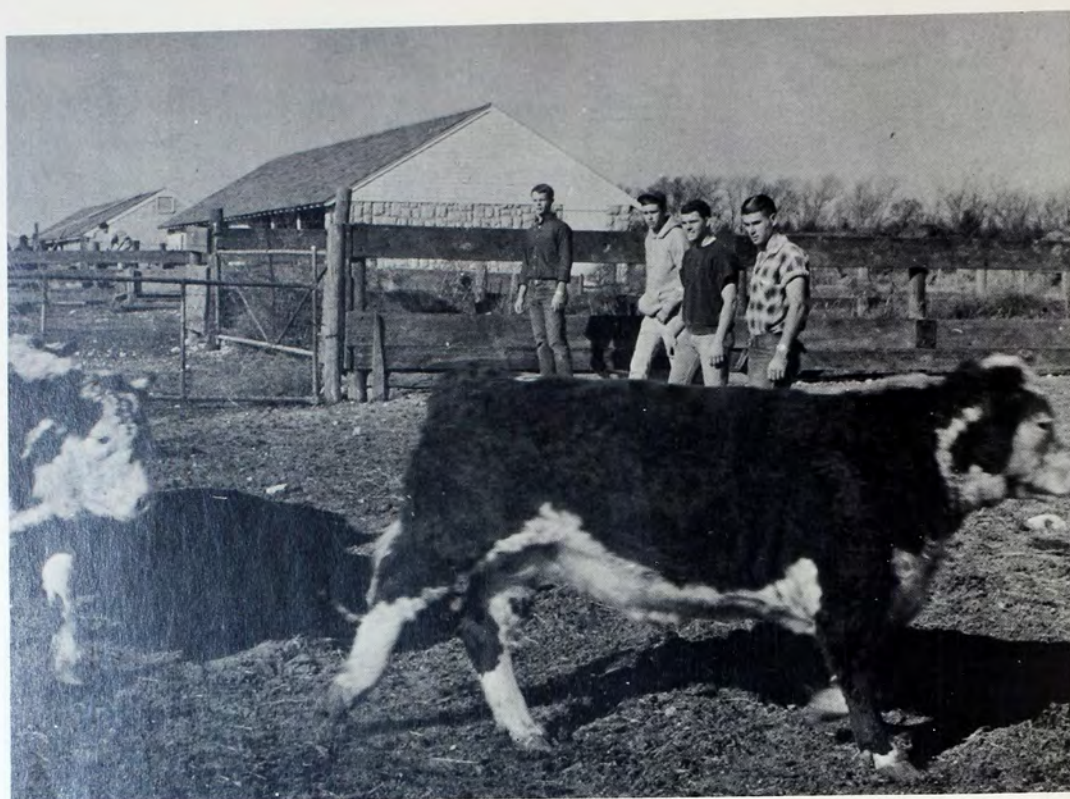

Guiding the project will be Lynn Rogers, who replaced Gerald Ruttman as union director after Ruttman resigned March 1 to join the staff of the student union at Oklahoma State University.

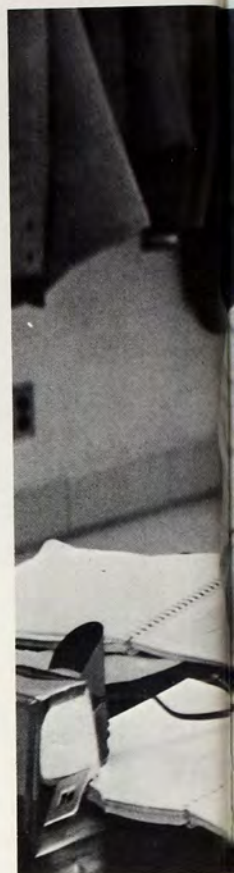

Taking a breather between classes, students relax and visit in the snack bar of Memorial Union.

On the college farm, agriculture students help to run various experiments on livestock.

Bird watchers seek to identify a specimen they have spotted.

Biological Science Changes Introduced In Biology Program

In an effort to vitalize biology offerings, extensive changes were introduced in the program. The most significant alteration included a core of five courses which is now required of all biology majors before they begin to specialize.

Women have joined the men in the agriculture program. Three coeds were enrolled in agriculture courses, and one, Bonnie Brooks, received a degree in the field at spring commencement.

Three research programs were carried on by the division of biological science during the year.

They included a study of prairie remnants of the central Great Plains, an investigation of phreatophyte (a deep-rooted plant which obtains its water from the water table or the layer of soil just above it) vegetation around Cedar Bluffs Reservoir and a mapping of the patterns of this vegetation along the Arkansas River.

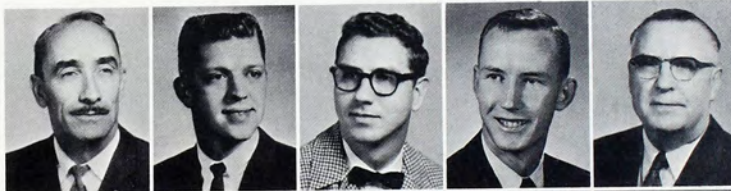

Running a plant physiology experiment on rate of transpiration are Larry Myers, John Whitney and Eldon Pickett.

Beta Beta Beta Visits Missouri Interest Sites

Highlighting the year for members of Beta Beta Beta, national biology honorary, was a visit to the Missouri Botanical Garden and the St. Louis Zoo. Delegates were sent to the regional Tri-Beta convention at Kearney, Neb.

Open to all interested persons, biological films were shown by the group. Luray Parker of the National Audubon Society spoke at the organization's annual banquet. Bill Gesink was president, and Dr. Howard Reynolds was sponsor.

Health, P. E. and Rec.

Innovations Include Rhythm on Parade

Innovations in the health, physical education and recreation program this year included the first production of the Rhythm on Parade show in January.

Coordinated by Suzanne Resler, instructor in physical education, and Ed McNeil, gymnastics coach, the performance featured dance numbers and gymnastics routines by men gymnasts and women in Orchesis.

Also new was intercollegiate baseball competition, which was re-introduced after a 42-year absence.

Office space for the division's faculty members was expanded to accommodate an enlarged staff.

Maneuvers and calling techniques are taught in square dance courses, which are a part of the recreation program.

Former Fort Hays State student Carl Haney, state consultant on careers in physical education, spoke to the P. E. Majors Club during the year. The group also brought other speakers to campus and sponsored films dealing with various areas of health, physical education and recreation.

Scholarship Fund Built By K-Club Pop Sales

Sale of pop at football and basketball games provided money for a scholarship fund in the name of K-Club.

With the return of baseball to the sports program, additional men became eligible for membership in K-Club. In order to qualify for membership, a man must earn a letter in any of the nine intercollegiate sports.

As is customary, K-Club maintained the huge K, composed of rocks, on College Hill, west of the campus.

Eta Rho Epsilon Takes Third in Bicycle Races

Women of Eta Rho Epsilon, professional health, physical education and recreation organization, captured third place in the bicycle races at the Fort Hays Furlough.

Joining Women's Recreation Assn. as co-sponsor of the all-school carnival, the group helped finance scholarships for women majoring in health and physical education.

All women physical education majors qualify for membership in Eta Rho Epsilon. Rita Humble was elected president. Nancy Cotham acted as sponsor for the organization.

WRA Holds Play Days For High School Girls

Inviting high school girls to campus for its annual series of Play Days, Women's Recreation Assn., organization for all coeds interested in sports and recreation, provided them with several types of athletic competition. The group also sponsored the annual all-school carnival.

Always a power, WRA snared the Fort Hays Furlough bicycle race championship for the second straight year.

Sharon Zimmerman was elected president of the group. Suzanne Resler served as sponsor for the organization.

Economics and Business Student Boon Created By Stenographic Lab

Opened this year, a stenographic listening laboratory proved a boon to secretarial training in the economics and business division. More than 3,000 students were enrolled in one or more classes in the division in the fall.

Included on the teaching staff were 23 full-time faculty members, as well as part-time instructors and graduate assistants. Seven specialized areas offered more than 100 courses in economics and business. The curriculum covered accounting, economics, general business, business teaching, data processing, secretarial work and geography.

Nurse Education Trousers Join Skirts In Nursing Program

Perry Comeau brought something unique to FHS this year, but it wasn't a crooning voice. He was the first male student to seriously study nursing at the college.

Earning his badge (equivalent of cap) upon completing the second year of the four-year nursing program in April, Comeau worked with male patients while the 36 sophomore women in the program attended women patients.

Comeau was not entirely alone in his aspirations. Several freshman men were enrolled in nursing courses, which often prove to be the testing ground for helping one determine if he is suited for the profession.

Also in nursing, Miss Leora Stroup, professor of nurse education, was named a member of the Kansas Voluntary Advisory Committee on the Selection of Physicians, Dentists and Allied Specialists by Gov. William Avery.

In addition to on-campus learning, student nurses use the Hadley Memorial Hospital library and hold several classes in the building.

Applied Arts Highlights Include College Art Show

Featuring works of 112 students, the annual Fort Hays State Student Art Show again highlighted spring art activities. Each student exhibited from two to eight pieces of his year's work. In May students sold their work at the Village Art Sale.

Recipients of Mabel Vandiver Awards for outstanding art in the show were Louise Pickering, Douglas Freed, Conrad Chlumsky, Don Kelly, Linda Memming, Martha Nelson and Maribeth Engle.

In late April, juniors and seniors from 60 high schools in Central and Western Kansas submitted more than 2,000 projects for competition in the college's annual Industrial Arts Fair.

Several pieces of power equipment were added to the industrial arts department. The equipment included electronic machines for testing various engine parts, training stations for running electronic experiments, a wood surfacer, a table saw, a plane, a shaper and a box and pan breaker, which folds sheet metal into the shape of a pan.

Money-making projects of pie and candy sales helped finance the programs for Home Economics Chapter and Kappa Omicron Phi, national home economics honorary.

Connie Bennett was state treasurer of Home Economics Chapter, and Maxine Hoffman, associate professor of home economics, was adviser to the treasurer. Mrs. Hoffman and Alice Beesley, professor of home economics, served on the state executive committee of the organization.

More selective in membership, Kappa Omicron Phi required that members maintain a 2.0 average in home economics and complete at least 12 hours in the department.

Sharon Kralicek served as president of Home Economics Chapter, and June Krebs was sponsor. Sheryl Drake headed Kappa Omicron Phi, and Miss Beesley was adviser.

Industrial Arts Clubs Hold Fair, Contact Alumni

More than 2,100 entries from 64 Kansas high schools poured onto campus for the annual Industrial Arts Fair, sponsored by Industrial Arts Club, in April. Projects judged at the fair ranged from furniture to machinery.

Other activities of the organization included a customary overnight cookout and a dinner honoring outstanding scholarship of industrial arts students each semester.

More selective, Epsilon Pi Tau, honorary for industrial arts students ranking in the upper one-fourth of their classes, maintained contact with alumni of the department and provided placement sources for graduating seniors.

Delbert Martin was president of Industrial Arts Club; Dennis McKee was adviser. Epsilon Pi Tau was headed by Conrad Peterson. Sponsor of the group was Dr. Rex Nelson.

Lang., Lit. and Speech Sheaf Gives Way To New Magazine

Replacing the Sheaf, a new campus literary magazine, known as the Smoky Hill Review, was born. Two issues, one in the fall and another in the spring, carried poetry, fiction and drama by students, faculty and outside writers.

To become effective at the beginning of the fall semester next year, a change in the basic studies requirement in English was outlined by the Faculty Senate. Under the new system, Composition 2 will no longer be offered. Instead, students will take Composition I their freshman year and Expository Writing 51 their junior year.

With an answer anticipated by next fall, application was made to the Board of Regents for approval of a journalism major for FHS.

Translated by Dr. S. J. Sackett, professor of English, "The Man Who Had His Hair Cut Short" by John Daisne, a Flemish novelist, was released by a New York publisher. Dr. William Thompson, professor of English, succeeded Dr. Reginald Reindorp, professor of language, as chairman of the division of language, literature and speech.

Need for more library space became acutely apparent this year as students packed into the reference room daily.

Library Science Work Moves Ahead On Library Building

Anticipating more up-to-date facilities, Fort Hays Staters saw construction on a new library get underway in November. The $1,500,000 structure, slated for completion in January, 1967, will more than triple current space and will acquire its name from the present Forsyth Library.

According to present plans, the old library, center of campus study since 1926, will be remodeled into an administration building.

Approximately 70 students helped finance their education during the year by working in the library. Twenty-seven hours of library science courses were offered to enable secondary education majors to qualify as teacher librarians.

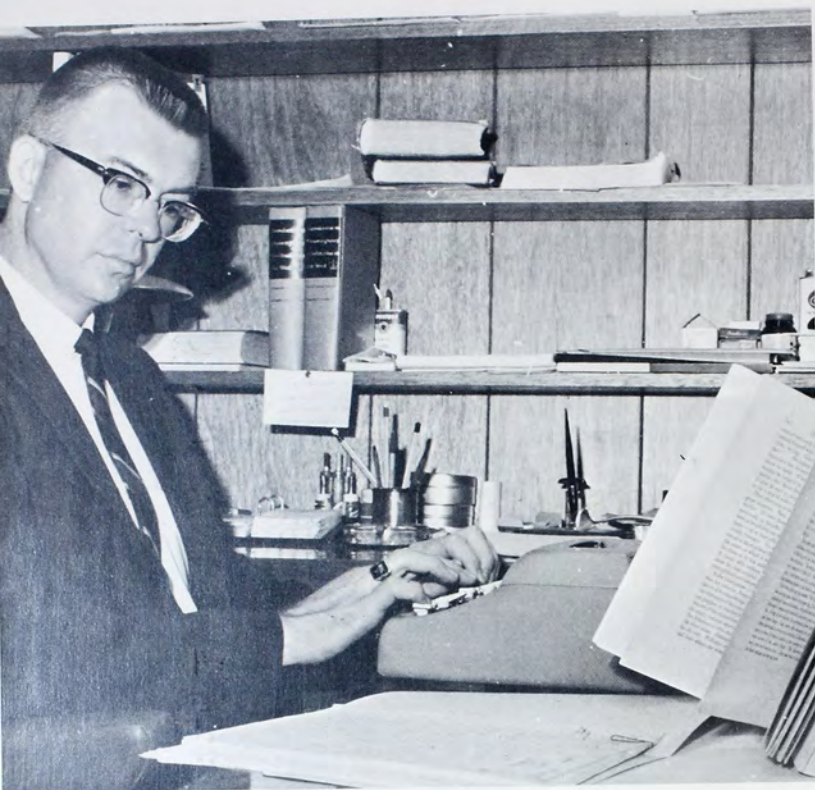

Spacious and modern, the new library will be similar in style to Malloy Hall.

Music

Only Men Qualify For Marching Band

Completing its first full year in the new Malloy Hall, the music division incorporated several innovations into its program offerings.

An all-male marching band, one of the few in the state and the only one in the Central Intercollegiate Conference, was organized. Under the direction of Lyle Dilley, the band presented halftime shows at home football contests.

Although not offered for classroom credit, a college stage band gave interested musicians an opportunity to master techniques of playing various dance arrangements in preparation for participation in professional dance groups.

After having served FHS for 47 years, Lucille Felten, professor of music, retired. Donald E. Stout, associate professor of music, received his doctorate from the University of Indiana.

Well-known for her annual Poise 'n' Ivy shows and for her troupe of Impromptuos, Mary Maude Moore, assistant professor of music, took a leave of absence after six years at the college.

Many hours of intensive effort go into a top-notch musical performance. Here Gerald Brown practices a recital piece on the large pipe organ in Malloy Hall.

More than 200 singers and dancers teamed to produce the last Poise 'n' Ivy show, originated six years ago by Mary Maude Moore (on podium).

Producer positions Impromptwo Nione Olson Munsell for filming.

Impromptws Appear On Television Special

Winding up a busy six-year history, the Impromptws were filmed for an appearance on television.

Their own version of "All My Trials" was selected to close the 17-number Campus Talent '66, a showcase of top entertainers from 10 Kansas colleges and universities. The hour-long program featured vocalists, folk singers, instrumental groups and a ventriloquist.

Mary Maude Moore, assistant professor of music and originator of the group, is taking a leave of absence next year, and Poise 'n' Ivy appearances thus marked the last for the troupe, known throughout Kansas.

Concluding last year's whirlwind USO tour of the Orient, Korea and the South Pacific, during which they gave 147 shows in 11 weeks, the Impromptws were booked for three weeks in Disneyland. Back home, they slowed their pace to about one show per week.

An album, "The Impromptws Hit the Road," featuring numbers used on the tour and solos by Miss Moore, was sold on campus. Records of numbers by the Impromptws, Miss Moore and the men's and women's glee clubs at Poise 'n' Ivy were also pressed.

Last year's troupe of Impromptws presented FHS a friendship banner received from the Chinese Navy.

Fort Hays Singers Perform at Madrigal Dinner

Helping Memorial Union personnel turn back the clock to 16th century England, the Fort Hays Singers performed amid decorations simulating a baronial castle at the Madrigal Dinner in December. The Singers also entertained collegians and townspeople at a spring concert in Malloy Hall and took their customary tour of high schools.

From the group came many of the soloists for major college productions. Handpicked by the director, Donald E. Stout, the Singers are traditionally one of the top entertainment attractions at the college. They have performed at state and regional music conventions and have provided special music for innumerable other events.

Varsity Band Anchors Two-Hour Pops Show

Featuring the mellow sound of George Roberts, "Mr. Bass Trombone," the Varsity Show in February was anchored by the Varsity Band. The band joined the men's and women's glee clubs and faculty members in producing the two-hour show, comprised primarily of Broadway and popular music.

Composed of members from the Varsity Band, the college stage band supplied backup music for Roberts and presented their own interpretation of several arrangements.

At Christmas Vespers in December, the Symphonic Band joined the men's and women's glee clubs in bringing music in the Christmas mood to collegians and townspeople. The Clarinet Choir also played several numbers. In April the Symphonic and Varsity Bands appeared in concert. Several instrumental soloists presented numbers at the performance.

Lyle Dilley was conductor of Symphonic Band and Varsity Band. Earl Blauer directed the college stage band.

More than 300 musicians, including students, faculty and townspeople presented "Israel in Egypt," a sacred oratorio by George Frederic Handel, in January.

Donald E. Stout, associate professor of music, directed the performance. Participating groups included Choral Union, Concert Choir, the men's and women's glee clubs and the Community Symphony Orchestra.

Soloists were Alison H. Moss, instructor in music; Mary Maude Moore, assistant professor of music; Dr. Lloyd K. Herren, chairman of the division of music; Ronald Pflughoff, vocal instructor at Hays High School; and Marvin Cochran, an instructor at the Morland schools.

Acting as a proving ground for future members of Concert Choir, Collegian Chorale appeared in concert in May. Less selective than Concert Choir and composed of underclassmen, the Chorale gave more students a chance to perform and supplied the music division with more depth for major productions. Donald E. Stout directed the group.

Education and Psychology

Student Observes Dreaming Subjects

Spending 20 sleepless nights, Jon Peters, a junior, ran tests on dreaming persons. In his experiment, conducted for classroom credit in psychology, Peters set out to determine the correlation between rapid eyeball movement and dreaming and to locate dreams in the sleep cycle.

A machine known as a polygraph recorded brain waves of sleeping subjects as well as all patterns of eyeball movement. When it became evident that a subject was dreaming, Peters awakened the person and questioned him concerning the dream.

In the morning Peters also asked his subjects to relate all dreams or thoughts of the previous night. In most cases, Peters observed, they could freely recall the dreams, although at times a certain amount of prompting was necessary.

From his observations Peters concluded that dreams were most likely to occur during the lightest stages of sleep. While subjects were in deep sleep, Peters observed virtually no rapid eyeball movement, and, consequently, no dreams.

Polygraph indicates the regularity of eye movements of a sleeping subject.

Professor Handles Entire Department

Dr. Samuel Hamilton, professor of philosophy, comprised a one-man philosophy department during the year. He handled 12 different courses, which totaled more than 25 credit hours. These courses included all the required and elective ones necessary to earn an A.B. degree in the field.

Many students became acquainted with Dr. Hamilton, an ordained minister, through his introduction to logic course, which teaches practical application of the basic rules of logic.

Using a workbook he wrote, Dr. Samuel Hamilton teaches a philosophy course which proves beneficial to any student, no matter what his field—logic.

Rarick Hall houses education, philosophy and psychology.

Changes Reflected In Teaching Major

Changes in teacher certification requirements were placed in effect early in July, 1966. Under the new system, requirements in two areas, oral and written communication, and literature-foreign language and history-behavioral sciences could be met by the basic studies program.

Elective courses in science or math were allowed to meet a four-hour deficiency created in the area of natural science-mathematics.

Electives to complete the 50-hour general education requirements were restricted more than previously, but the new regulations were more flexible in permitting all liberal arts courses to be included in the general education field.

FHS Students Nab Top SNEA Posts

State offices in Student National Education Assn. for 1967 went to two FHS students.

Lawrence Wendelin and Audry Mead were elected president and secretary, respectively, at the state convention in Lawrence. Consequently, Wendelin received a trip to the National SNEA Convention in Miami, Fla., during the summer.

William Smith, president of the group, who received a Kansas State Teachers Assn. scholarship, was recognized for his achievement at a banquet for all SNEA members from FHS. Dr. Gordon Price and Dr. Edith Dobbs sponsored the group.

THE SIDE SHOWS

Zestful excitement is generated by a carrousel of extracurricular activities at FHS.

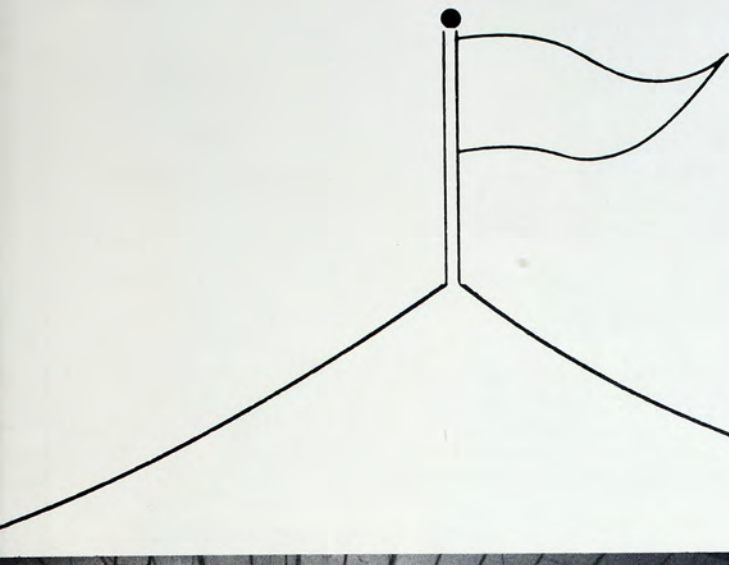

Collegians experience many unforgettable moments—the glistening smile of a newly crowned queen, the thrill of an athletic contest, the bonding of friendships through social groups.

These side shows of the college show are subordinate to academics, but they provide the stimulus to produce socially adept individuals.

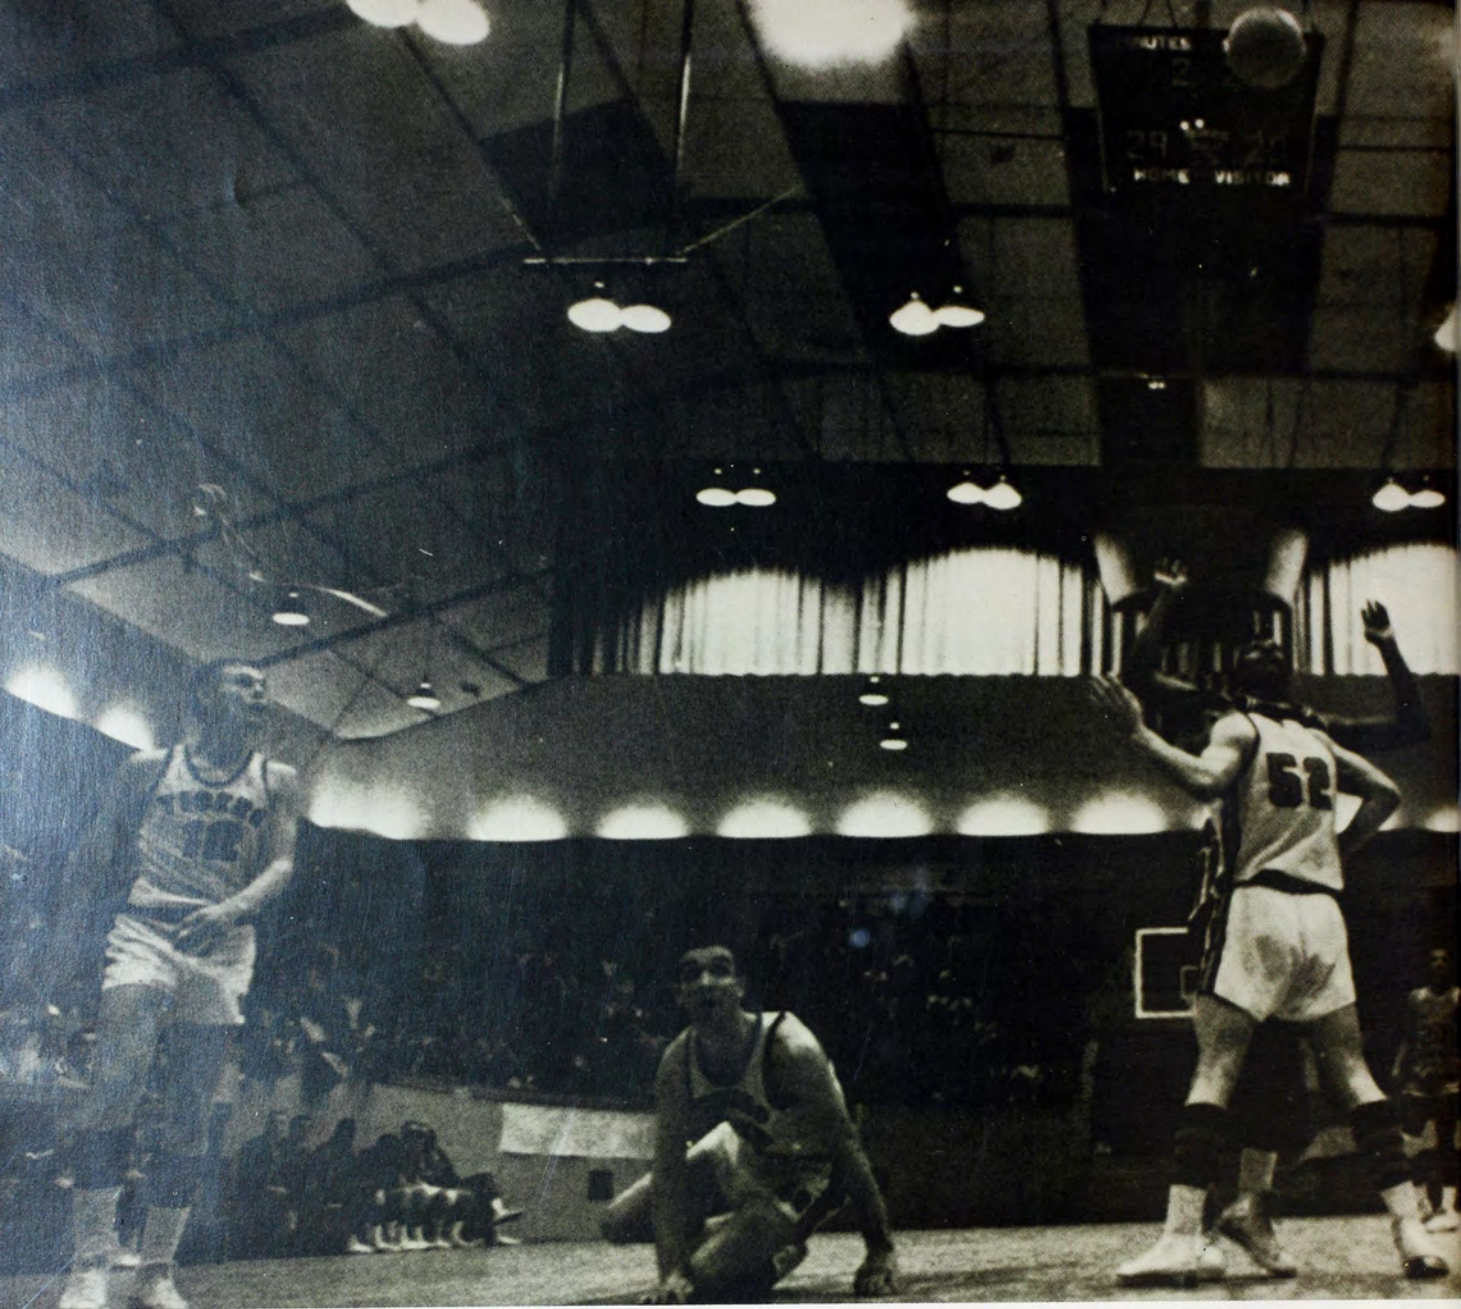

Why not share the fun? The following pages allow you to witness the entertaining performances which occurred in . . . the side shows.

There is something excitingly grand about an athletic contest at Fort Hays State.

Both players and fans exhibit a keen zest for competition, and opponents have developed genuine respect for Tiger power and prowess.

Enthusiasm grips the fans as the Bengals appear for battle. Anticipation grows as the contest begins and the teams go doggedly into action. Tension mounts as Tiger momentum gathers, and pandemonium runs rampant when the Bengals score.

Losing brings disappointment but also added determination to win the next encounter.

These factors make fine teams a tradition at FHS and comprise . . . the Tiger spirit.

Omaha Stops Tiger Bid For CIC Football Title

With 56 seconds remaining in the final game of the football season, a 5-yard pass spelled defeat for the Fort Hays State Tigers and shattered their hopes for the college's first undisputed CIC championship since 1936.

Ending with a 6-3-0 season record, the Tigers posted their best mark since 1962 and the third winning season in the last four years for Coach Wayne McConnell's teams.

Picked by sports fans to be a dark-horse, the Tigers quickly surprised observers when they won their first two games over rough competition. They lost the next game but roared back to win the next three impressively.

After another loss, the Bengals faced Pittsburgh State and Omaha University. They defeated Pittsburgh and the championship depended on the Tiger-Omaha outcome. "The season was one minute too long," said Coach McConnell after the touchdown which cost the Tigers the title.

Fort Hays State Trips Southwestern Oklahoma

Southwestern Oklahoma's Bulldogs provided the first competition for the Fort Hays State Tigers in 1965.

Playing at Weatherford only a week after classes began, the Tigers eked out a 7-6 victory over the Bulldogs to begin the season on an optimistic note.

Drawing first blood, the Bengals scored early in the first quarter on a two-yard keeper by quarterback Bob Johnson. Max VanLaningham's kick for point was good, and the Tigers held a 7-0 lead for three quarters.

Midway in the fourth quarter Bulldog quarterback Ron Engel tossed a five-yard aerial to his fullback to put the Dogs in the scoring column. The try for point was wide, and the Tigers held on for the narrow 7-6 win.

Even though the season was young, the stage was set and the eager Tigers were on the rampage.

Bengals Pull Upset; Topple Kearney State

Opening the home season Sept. 25, the Tigers entertained the highly rated Kearney (Neb.) State Antelopes.

Champions of the tough Nebraska College Conference in 1964, Kearney's near-perfect season was marred only by a 34-19 drubbing by Fort Hays State at Kearney.

This record, combined with the brilliant performances of Neil Kaup, one of the finest passing quarterbacks in the nation, made the Lopers the strong favorite.

Coach Wayne McConnell shifted the Tigers to cope with the potent Antelopes. Rich Dreiling, sophomore transfer from Kansas University, took over the fullback slot. Bob Anthony moved from fullback to halfback.

Dreiling ran up 164 yards on the ground. With the passing of Bob Johnson and the speed of Anthony, the Tigers pulled the upset, defeating the Antelopes 21-13.

Bob Johnson (12) is caught by a Central Missouri tackler.

Tigers Fall to Bears; Recover to Rip Mules

Taking to the road again, this time to Greeley, to battle the Colorado State College Bears, Coach Wayne McConnell's charges encountered some grizzly opposition.

Tigers errors proved costly, and the Bears were quick to capitalize. They ran through the Bengal defense and kept the FHS offense from scoring. The Tigers showed spurts of good play both offensively and defensively, but just when they began to move, a mistake shattered their poise.

Tasting defeat for the first time in the season, the Bengals succumbed to Colorado State 21-7.

Undismayed, the Tigers revamped their attack and began a three-game winning streak Oct. 9, meeting the Mules of Central Missouri State in Lewis Field.

Quarterback Bob Johnson set four school records while leading the Bengal eleven to a convincing victory with the final score 40-14. Johnson's records: single game rushing, 191 yards; points for one game, 25; total offense gained in one game, 244; plays for one game, 42.

Leaping over a Tiger defender, a Colorado State College player moves for a slight gain before being tackled by Bob Ridler (73). The Bears, moving the ball well on the ground, stopped the Bengal offensive and handed the Tigers their first setback of the season 21-7.

Finding himself being hauled down by a host of Tigers, a Washburn player fights to keep possession of the ball. The Bengals roared past the defending CIC champions 25-0.

Tiger Victory Darkens Washburn Homecoming

Washburn was defending conference champion and was in the midst of a Homecoming celebration commemorating the college centennial when the Tigers came to town.

When they left, the Ichabods were nursing the wounds of a 25-0 drubbing by the Bengals. A strong Tiger defense and the passing combination of quarterback Bob Johnson to 152-pound end Ron Morel proved too much for the punchless Ichabod Squad.

Bengal defenders constantly broke into the Ichabod backfield and threw the Washburn backs for losses. Johnson hit paydirt with scoring passes to Morel three times in the first half to give the Tigers a 19-0 lead.

Tightening their defense, the Ichabods kept the Bengals from scoring in the third quarter but could not muster a tallying drive themselves. Then, in the final period the Tiger offense began to click once more.

With hard running by Bob Anthony and Rich Dreiling supplying the impetus, the Bengals moved to the Washburn four-yard line where Johnson took the ball in for the touchdown to make the final score 25-0.

With an impressive win in their CIC opener behind them, the Bengals began to show they had title potential.

Bob Johnson's jersey gets a stretching as a Central Missouri State tackler tries to bring him down. The Tigers won the game 40-14.

Tigers Wallop E-State In Homecoming Clash

Emporia State's Hornets were out to give the Tigers a stinging at the FHS Homecoming game Oct. 23.

This clash has always proved exciting and this year was no exception. Drawing first blood on an 11-yard aerial from Bob Johnson to Ron Morel, the Bengals dominated play the rest of the game and dashed Emporia State's hopes for a victory by handing the Hornets a 42-7 swatting.

Piling up 264 yards rushing and 329 yards total offense, Johnson erased two of his own records, both set earlier in the season in the Central Missouri State game.

In addition to Johnson's pass to Morel, the Tigers scored five other touchdowns on a 7-yard pass from Johnson to Bob Anthony, three runs by Johnson of 13, 23 and 83 yards; and one by Max VanLaningham of two yards.

Unbeaten SCS Cools Error-Prone Bengals

Undefeated in five games, a strong Southern Colorado State team faced the Tigers in Hays Oct. 30.

With tremendous speed in the backfield and a strong defensive effort, the Indians from Pueblo repeatedly capitalized on Bengal errors and turned them into valuable points. Trying vainly to counter the attack, the Tigers could not get the breaks. The final score read 24-14 with Southern Colorado State owning the victory.

and goes in for the touchdown.

Win at Pittsburg Puts Tigers in Title Picture

Coming down the home stretch, the Tigers met Pittsburg there. A victory over the Gorillas would put the Tigers in contention with Omaha for the CIC crown.

Pittsburg scored first and showed a strong attack and stiff defense. The Gorillas stopped the Tigers cold on numerous occasions before the FHS attack got rolling.

But gains by halfback Bob Anthony and fullback Rich Dreiling paced the Bengals to a come-from-behind 21-7 win, their first on the Pittsburg field since 1942.

Bob Johnson (with ball) runs into a stone wall in the game with Pittsburg State. FHS came from behind to win the contest 21-7.

In the Homecoming contest with Emporia State, which the Tigers won handily 42-7, Rich Dreiling lunges for a few extra yards.

Slipping from the arms of an Emporia State defender, Bob Johnson goes over the top for a long gain. Johnson shattered two FHS records in the game.

With Rich Dreiling (35) ready to clear the way, Bob Johnson (12) attempts an end sweep against the Omaha University Indians. The action-packed game, played for the conference championship, ended with the Tigers on the short end of a 26-21 score.

Max VanLaningham puts the stops on Omaha University speedster Rick Davis (27). Assisting on the tackle was Bob Walters (74).

Last-Minute Touchdown Costs FHS CIC Title

Hungry for a CIC championship, the Tigers battled the Omaha Indians on the home field Nov. 13.

Fighting hard before a capacity crowd, the Tigers built up a lead of 14-6 during the first half.

Shortly after the start of the third quarter, the Bengals scored again on a 40-yard gallop by sophomore fullback Rich Dreiling and took an imposing 21-6 advantage.

But the Indians were not so easily subdued. They started a march downfield and climaxed the drive with a touchdown pass from Marlin Briscoe to his left end.

With the amazing passing of Briscoe and the brilliant running of All-American Gerald Allen, the Indians came to life against a weakening Tiger defense. Scoring another touchdown before the end of the third quarter, Omaha moved to within two points of the Tigers.

Then came the fatal attack. With only 56 seconds left in the game, Briscoe unleashed a 5-yard aerial to Bill Haas, the Indians scored and the game ended 26-21.

Depending upon the stamina built through countless hours of training, Don Lakin grinds away the miles in a cross country meet.

Coach Alex Francis holds a position in NAIA Hall of Fame.

Tiger Harriers Romp To Second NAIA Title

A second NAIA championship and the second national title for Fort Hays State climaxed the finest season in the 10-year history of cross country competition at FHS.

Squad victories list all but two of the 10 meets the Tiger harriers entered. The Bengals placed second and third in the invitationals they didn't win. Major wins included the CIC conference and NAIA national championships.

Coach Alex Francis, 1965 Track Coach of the Year for Area Three of the NAIA and NAIA Hall of Fame member, in the past 10 years has fielded teams which won two CIC championships, two NAIA championships, the runner-up CIC spot seven times and second place in the NAIA four times.

Pacing the Bengals this year were NAIA All-Americans Don Lakin and John Mason. Lakin finished first in five of the eight meets he entered and second in the remaining three. Six of the eight times Lakin and Mason competed together, they finished in consecutive spots.

Other consistently high finishing Tigers were Marlon Neely, who won both of the two duals the B-squad had during the season, and Lowell Smith, a four-year letterman.

This year Lakin broke two FHS records in cross country. He set the four-mile record at the CIC Championships with a winning time of 19:39.5. He had set the record earlier in the season at the Oklahoma State Jamboree. In Kearney, Neb., he set the three-mile record at 14:11.8.

At the sound of the gun, the clads surge from the starting line at the dual meet with Kearney (Neb.) State.

FHS Runner Named Top Missouri Valley Athlete

Senior Don Lakin was selected "Outstanding Missouri Valley Athlete in Long Distance Running." Other honors he received during college were NAIA All-American team positions—twice in cross country and once in track. Coach Alex Francis tabbed him "the best distance runner in FHS history."

Letters were awarded to the following harriers: Neil Cleaves, Jerry Hertel, Jerry Katz, Lakin, John Mason, Marlon Neely, Lowell Smith, Joe Twyman and Bruce Zamrzla.

FHS runners John Mason and Don Lakin run one-two against Kearney (Neb.) State harriers.

Adding another victory to his achievements, Lakin breaks the tape.

Close Games Tell Tale in So-So Cage Season

Fort Hays State's basketball squad ended its first season under Coach Chuck Brehm by posting an 11-10 record and tying Washburn for third place in the CIC.

Only four of the 10 losses suffered by the Bengals were by 10 or more points; four were by five or fewer points. The largest winning margin for the Tigers came with a 103-78 victory over Kearney (Neb.) State at Hays. Of the 11 Bengal victories, seven were by 10 or more points.

Tiger victories on the road were hard to come by as the Black and Gold came out on top in only three of 10 contests. At home, however, the win-loss record for seven seasons in Sheridan Coliseum climbed to an imposing 72-12.

In spite of ranking last in height in the conference, Tiger cagers were seldom outrebounded by their opponents. Hustle, good board position and the leadership of two senior strong-men, Bill Strait and Cleat Doyel, gave the Bengals the best one-two rebounding punch in the conference.

Doyel set the school one-game rebounding record by pulling down 23 caroms in a CIC contest against Washburn University at Hays. The previous record was set at 21 by Tom Ashleman in 1963. Four Tigers ended their collegiate basketball careers this season—Doyel, Johnnie Locke and Strait, all regulars, and Keith Riley, a reserve.

Coach Brehm, 1964 national junior college coach of the year, came to FHS after serving five years at Dodge City Junior College, where his teams had a 113-29 record.

In 1964 his squad of Conquistadors won the national junior college championship. Last year they placed fifth in the tournament. In his last two years as head mentor for the Conquistadors, his teams won 29 and lost two.

Suran Gains Position In NAIA Hall of Fame

Cade Suran was inducted into the NAIA Basketball Hall of Fame early in March in a ceremony at the Hotel Muehlebach in Kansas City. Head basketball coach at FHS for 19 years and present athletic director, Suran became the second Tiger cage mentor to be awarded the honor. Paul Gross, who coached basketball for 16 years and was athletic director for 35 years, was named to the Hall of Fame in 1957.

Junior Varsity Posts Season Mark of 5-3

Under the leadership of Coach Les Ramsdell, the Tiger junior varsity chalked up a 5-3 win-loss record.

Coach Ramsdell said he thought the team played "very well" all year, especially in the closing game. In that contest the junior Bengals posted a 90-84 victory over the Kearney (Neb.) State junior varsity. They fired 43.2 per cent from the field and a blazing 81.3 per cent from the charity stripe. Kearney State never threatened.

Teams falling to the Tigers were Bethany College, Colby Community College and Kearney State. Colby Community College and Emporia State defeated the Bengals.

Cagers Open Season With Three Straight Wins

Against Lincoln, Cleat Doyel (50) and Johnnie Locke (20) try for two.

Opening the season with a victory, the Tiger cagers downed Southwestern College's Moundbuilders 91-73 at Winfield. Early in the contest the Bengals snagged a 15-point lead. By halftime, however, a rally by Southwestern put the Moundbuilders within four points at 38-34.

In the second half the Bengals checked another Moundbuilder rally after SWC had taken a five-point lead, then took the initiative and led the rest of the way.

* * * * *

Two squads of Tigers—from FHS and Lincoln University of Jefferson City, Mo.—fought to an 89-78 decision in Sheridan Coliseum, with FHS coming out on top. The Black and Gold found itself trailing only once during the first half. Five straight points by Cleat Doyel, who led the game's scoring with 28, put the locals on top to stay.

* * * * *

Win number three for the Tigers was chalked up in Hays against the Indians of Southern Colorado State. When the final buzzer sounded, the scoreboard read 86-76.

Rapid scoring in the first two minutes of play gave the Bengals a solid 14-2 margin. But the Indians began to hit the basket shortly after that and pulled ahead 48-45 by the end of the half. Stability returned to the Bengals in the second half, and they dominated the rest of the game.

Tiger letterman Jerry Maska (10) comes up with the basketball in a scramble with the Antelopes of Kearney State College.

With Johnnie Locke (20) positioning for a possible rebound, Bill Strait (52) goes for a layup against Southern Colorado State. FHS won the contest 86-76 in Hays.

Bengals Top 100 In Kearney Game

Tiger scoring passed the century mark when Kearney State went down to defeat 103-78 in the Coliseum. Overcoming a 21-20 Antelope lead, Coach Chuck Brehm's squad jumped to a 15-point advantage and never let it drop below 13 points. Freshman Steve Salter made a layup that gave the Tigers 101 points and Mike McAtee then made the final goal to push the final score to 103-78.

Through the second half every man on the Bengal roster saw action as the Tigers put a 32-point wall between themselves and Kearney State.

FHS Streak Halted At Four by Indians

Southern Colorado State snapped the Tigers four-game winning streak by tallying an 89-85 victory in Pueblo. Coach Chuck Brehm called the game the best of the year to that point.

FHS trailed throughout most of the game, a cold 35.5 shooting average being the cause. During the second half, however, better accuracy kept the Bengals within three to five points.

With 4:31 remaining in the game, the score was knotted at 75-75. But four quick goals by SCS proved too much for the Tigers to overcome.

Tigers Down CSC; Push Mark to 5-1

Winning ways once again came to the Tigers at home against Colorado State College as they downed the Bears 84-82. The Tigers jumped off to an early 6-0 lead and widened the gap to 49-30 at intermission. With 16:43 to go in the second half, the Bengals were leading by 21 points.

Then a comeback by the Bears moved them to within one point of the Tigers at the 2:47 mark. But FHS hung on for a two-point victory.

Cleat Doyel set the season one-game scoring high for FHS in the game by tallying 33 points. The victory gave the Bengals a 5-1 record.

FHS Takes Fourth In Holiday Tourney

Fourth place went to the Tigers in the Midwest Collegiate Tournament at Emporia over the Christmas holiday. Omaha University fell to the Bengals in the first round by a 78-62 score.

When halftime rolled around, the Indians had jumped out in front 33-31. That lead disappeared, however, as a Tiger rally during the first five minutes of the second half pushed the score to 43-35 in favor of the surging Bengals.

Bottom-seeded Illinois State University dumped the Tigers into the consolation bracket of the tournament by handing them an 84-82 setback. Down by 22 points at 74-52 with 11:42 remaining in the ball game, the Bengals closed the gap steadily until senior Bill Strait meshed a set shot to tie the count at 82-82 with 1:16 remaining.

Illinois State then went into a control pattern, working for one last shot. The strategy paid off as a Redbird goal in the final seconds shattered the Tigers' hopes for a victory.

FHS never held the lead and trailed by as many as 12 against the Rockhurst Hawks in the final Tiger game in the tournament. During the second half the Bengals worked to a 63-63 tie.

It was a see-saw battle for the next five minutes. The score was deadlocked at 65-65, 67-67 and 69-69. Then Rockhurst copped a field goal and a free throw to lead 72-69. The Tigers cut the lead to 72-71 on a basket by Larry Soice.

But Rockhurst forced FHS to foul and connected on both free throws to widen the gap to 74-71. A layup by Tiger Al Billinger at the buzzer was not enough as the Bengals lost 74-73.

Fighting off two Colorado State players, Cleat Doyel snares a rebound.

An unidentified Bengal fights for control of the ball with two CSC Bears.

Attempting to deflect the ball, Fred Andregg battles a Pittsburg State player for a rebound. The Gorillas dumped the Tigers 71-65 in Sheridan Coliseum.

Strait Sets Record, But Bengals Lose

Bill Strait tied a Fort Hays State record by grabbing 21 rebounds at home against Pittsburg State College, but the Tigers lost 71-65.

Inability to hit the basket plagued the Bengals. They put up 102 shots but hit only 26 for a frigid 25.6 shooting percentage. The Gorillas tallied 43 per cent from the field and connected on 67.7 per cent of their free throws.

Although the Tigers had more rebounds and fewer turnovers than the Gorillas, they took it on the nose for their third straight loss.

Nine of the 10 Bengals who saw action broke into the scoring column. Fred Andregg led FHS scoring with 17 points. Strait tallied 15.

Omaha Rally Killed By Goal at Buzzer

A last-second field goal spelled victory for the Tigers against Omaha University there.

After the Bengals had led all the way, the Indians tied the count at 67-67 with 1:07 left to play. FHS used stalling tactics to counter the rally and held onto the ball until the final second, when Bill Strait bucketed a baseline shot to give the Tigers the narrow two-point victory.

Hitting a best-to-date percentage of 50.8 from the field, the Tigers copped their first win in the CIC. Larry Soice paced the Bengals with 17 points, and Johnnie Locke garnered 14.

As they did all season, KAYS radio announcers broadcast a Tiger basketball contest from Sheridan Coliseum.

St. Benedict's Rips Cold-Shooting FHS

Traveling to Atchison after the victory over Omaha, FHS suffered the first of two defeats at the hands of St. Benedict's 69-53.

Facing a tight Raven defense, the Bengals connected on only 27 per cent of their field goal attempts, compared to 47 per cent shooting by St. Benedict's. The Ravens jumped to a 9-0 lead before the Tigers got their first point—a free throw. It was another two minutes before a Bengal shot found its way through the basket.

Steadily, the Ravens pulled away to lead 39-20 at halftime and 60-36 with only seven minutes left. Employing a press, the Tigers put on their only real surge of the game, running in nine straight points to cut the gap to 60-45 and to 62-49 with about three minutes to go.

But that was as close as they could come.

Tigers Nip Swedes For Eighth Victory

In a nip and tuck game at home, Fort Hays State squeaked past Bethany College 69-68.

Again finding it hard to connect from the field, the Bengals pumped in 37 per cent from the field while the Swedes hit 40 per cent.

In the first half the score was tied twice, and the lead exchanged hands twice. The Tigers led by a narrow margin throughout the second half. The win ran the Bengals' record to 8-5.

Bengals Warm Up To Tame Broncos

Taming the Hastings College Broncos 76-64 in a non-conference game at home, the Tigers chalked up victory number nine. The Broncos led all the way through the first half and were on top during the first few minutes of the second half.

Finally warming up, the Bengals gained a comfortable margin over the Nebraska team and held it for the remainder of the game.

Bill Strait puts one up from 20 during the Tiger-St. Benedict's game at Hays. Alan Billinger (12) and Fred Andregg (30) move in for a rebound.

As a Bethany College player goes for a shot, Fred Andregg attempts a block.

Hornets Overtake FHS With Torrid Shooting

After making a good showing against Emporia State in the first half, the Tigers fell behind in field shooting to drop a 92-80 decision to the Hornets at home.

Both teams hit 50 per cent from the field in the first half, and the Tigers were leading by 11 at half time. But in the second half the Bengals went cold, hitting only 27 per cent, while the Hornets hit 56 per cent.

Tiger Victory Erases Ichabods' Title Hopes

Breaking back into the win column, FHS downed Washburn University 75-68 here to knock the Ichabods out of the title race. Still plagued with cold shooting, the Bengals hit 26 per cent from the field in the first half, but garnered 57 per cent in the final period.

Emporia State Grabs Second Win from FHS

Virtually all Tiger hopes for the CIC crown took a quick trip down the drain at Emporia as Emporia State won its second encounter with the Bengals 72-60.

Outplayed from the field and the charity stripe, the Tigers connected on only 44 per cent of their field goal attempts and 58 per cent of their free throws.

Considered a dark horse in the CIC, the Hornets stifled a second-half Tiger rally and led all the way.

Pittsburg State Blasts Tigers' Title Chances

Pittsburg State dealt the final blow to Tiger title hopes as they grabbed a 71-65 win at Pittsburg. Although their shooting warmed up in the second half, the Bengals never seriously threatened the Gorillas.

Nabbing two points for FHS against Washburn University is Alan Billinger.

At left: E-State player gets position on Bill Strait (52) and Johnnie Locke (20).

Against Pittsburg, Johnnie Locke (20) passes to Al Billinger.

In a three-way scramble for a rebound, Cleat Doyel (50) skirmishes with two St. Benedict's players. The Tigers lost a 76-68 thriller to the Ravens.

St. Benedict's Wins Hard-Fought Game

Tiger fans watched FHS go down to its second defeat at the hands of St. Benedict's as the Ravens won 76-68 in Sheridan Coliseum.

Moving into the lead midway through the first half, St. Benedict's built a 39-33 margin by half-time. The Bengals roared back, setting up a nip-and-tuck battle which lasted until the six-minute mark. Seven quick points by the Ravens put them ahead again, but the Tigers knotted the count at 55-55. Not to be denied, St. Benedict's forged ahead once more for the victory.

Tigers Find Range; Rip Indians 86-68

Finally finding the range, Fort Hays State drubbed Omaha University's Indians 86-68 to round out the home stand. The Tigers played well, maintaining a lead throughout the contest.

Cleat Doyel, Johnnie Locke and Gene Rider scored in double figures with 23, 19 and 15 points, respectively. Recording their best shooting performance in nine outings, the Tigers sank 46 per cent of their field goal attempts.

Opponents may dub it the "Snakepit," but the Tigers have racked up 72 victories in Sheridan Coliseum in the last eight seasons.

Frigid Tigers Drop Finale to Washburn

Poor shooting accounted for the Tigers' final loss of the season as they dropped an 80-75 heart-breaker to Washburn University at Topeka.

After gaining an early lead, the Bengals cooled off, and the Ichabods warmed up to overcome the Tigers and lead 39-33 at halftime.

In the second half the Ichabods increased the margin to 60-46. Technical fouls and confusion gave the Tigers another chance, and they roared back to knot the score at 67-67 with less than five minutes of playing time remaining.

But the Ichabods once again pulled ahead and were leading by five when the game ended.

Sporting an 8-4 mark, Coach Ed McNeil's gymnasts had one of the best seasons in FHS history. Eddie Johnson was the leading scorer for the Bengals with 169.5 points. Scoring 10 points, FHS placed 10th among 18 colleges in the NAIA Gymnastics Championships at Macomb, Ill.

Coach McNeil was named chairman of the National Assn. of Intercollegiate Athletics Gymnastics Committee and chairman of the NAIA Gymnastics Coaches Assn.

Gymnasts Open Season With Two Home Wins

Fort Hays State opened its 1965-66 gymnastics campaign at home with a meet against Kansas State University and Northwestern Oklahoma State College. Winning first place in every event, the Tigers scored 150.43 points, compared to Kansas State's 86.68 and Northwestern Oklahoma's 85.29.

In a meet with rugged Nebraska University at Lincoln, the Bengals pushed the Cornhuskers all the way but lost 155.1-143.7. Running their record to 3-2 in dual competition, the Tigers split a meet in Hays with Central Missouri State and Kansas University. They bombed Central Missouri 121.95-84.15 but bowed to the powerful Jayhawks 152.15-121.95.

Crippled by the loss of freshmen Steve Byram and Ed Harvey through grade deficiencies, the Tigers lost to New Mexico University 127.65-116.4 in Sheridan Coliseum. But they bounced back to smother Northwestern Oklahoma State College 103.5-36.5 and topped Oklahoma University 143.95-108.4.

Traveling to Manhattan for a return match with the Kansas State University Wildcats, the Bengals won 134.25-115.93 by copping first place in every event. Moving on to Warrensburg, Mo., the Tigers had a return encounter with Central Missouri State. The Bengals took first in every event but the parallel bars to hand the Mules a 130.55-118.85 setback.

FHS gymnasts closed out the regular season at Ft. Collins, Colo., where they split two matches, losing to Colorado State University 153.52-133.58 and nudging Ft. Lewis College 133.58-133.5 by coming from behind in the last event.

Grapplers End 8-9; Finish 8th in NAIA

Facing a schedule of stiff opponents, Coach Dave Winter's grapplers racked up an 8-9 record in dual competition. That brought Coach Winter's mark in three seasons at the head of the wrestling squad to 30 victories and 16 defeats.

In the NAIA national championships at St. Cloud (Minn.) State, FHS scored 22 points to tie for eighth among 60 colleges. Stormy Johnson fought his way to second in the 137-pound class, and Charley Toedman was second in the 177-pound division. Don Keller and Bob Ruda won first round matches before being eliminated from competition.

Coming to FHS from Newton High School in 1963, Coach Dave Winter has led his wrestlers to a 30-16 record.

FHS Deals Losses To First Two Foes

Coach Dave Winter's matmen got off on the right foot as they stopped the Emporia State Hornets 23-6 and Kansas University 31-10.

Then the tide reversed as the grapplers fell to Colorado State College 26-3 and Adams (Colo.) State 28-3. But the Tigers bounced back to stop St. Cloud (Minn.) State 19-13.

Three straight losses followed, but the Bengals again recovered and copped three straight wins. Losses came at the hands of Central Missouri State 19-14, Denver University 21-15 and Colorado University 33-7. Wins were recorded over Northwest Missouri State 17-16, Graceland College 17-13 and Southeast Missouri State 17-13.

Mustering only two victories in their last six outings, the wrestlers first bowed to Central Missouri State 19-11 and Hiram Scott College 19-15, then stopped Omaha University 18-15.

In their final three season matches before the NAIA meet, the Tigers lost to Colorado State University 21-16, topped Kearney (Neb.) State 21-13 and bowed to Nebraska University 22-9.

Intramurals Offer Inclusive Program

In the comprehensive intramural program, five team sports, five two-man sports and five individual events afforded opportunity for every male student to participate if he so desired.

Organizations won trophies and medals, awarded to school champions in each individual event. Each organization was limited to one entrant in competition for the intramural "K" award, won this year by Dave Ingersoll, a Promethean.

In addition to the Greek champions, all-school winners were the Goal Tenders, International Relations Club, Sherwood Forest, Larry Tonne, Richard Lebsack, James Dinkel and Donnie Hockett.

Golf Squad Grabs 9-5 Season Mark

In Coach Cade Suran's first year at the helm of the golf team, the squad compiled a 9-5 record in dual competition. Suran replaced Dr. Joel Moss, who coached golf for seven years and led his golfers to the CIC title in 1965.

FHS finished second in the CIC golf tournament and the NAIA District 10 meet, bowing only to Washburn University in both cases.

In the NAIA national championships at Shawnee, Okla., Fort Hays State linksters were eliminated from competition after 36 holes.

Returning letterman Dennis Close had the best dual record on the squad during the season. Posting a best round of 71, he had a 9-4-1 mark and averaged 78.8 strokes per round.

Led by the strong play of Close, the Bengal golfers started with a bang, winning their first five matches. They knocked off Kansas Wesleyan University 10 $\frac{1}{2}$ -4 $\frac{1}{2}$ , Emporia State 8 $\frac{1}{2}$ -6 $\frac{1}{2}$ , College of Emporia 12-3, Kearney (Neb.) State 14 $\frac{1}{2}$ -1 $\frac{1}{2}$  and Northwestern Oklahoma State 8 $\frac{1}{2}$ -6 $\frac{1}{2}$ .

Running into stiffer competition, the Bengals were bounced for three consecutive losses by two Wichita State University teams 13 $\frac{1}{2}$ -11 $\frac{1}{2}$  and 11 $\frac{1}{2}$ -3 $\frac{1}{2}$ , and by Kansas University 11-4.

Wins over St. Benedict's College 10-5, Kansas Wesleyan University 15-0, Bethany College 15-0 and Kearney State 10-5, and losses to Washburn University 14 $\frac{1}{2}$ -1 $\frac{1}{2}$  and Omaha University 8-7 rounded out the season's slate for the Tigers.

Coach Cade Suran completes his first year as golf mentor.

Netmen Finish 8-4 Under New Coach

Under the guidance of new coach Jerry Johnson, the tennis squad racked up an 8-4 mark.

FHS netmen placed third in the CIC meet at Topeka. Kim Gottschalk and Mike McAtee finished second in the number one and number two singles, respectively. McAtee and Dave Young copped second place in the number two doubles.

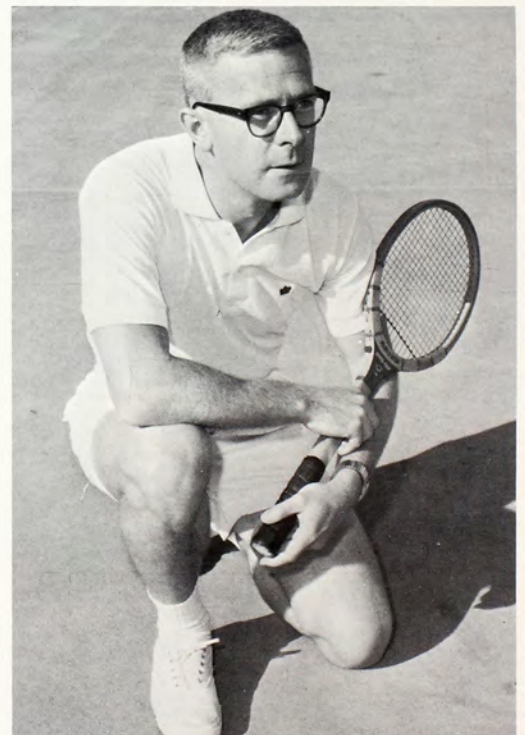

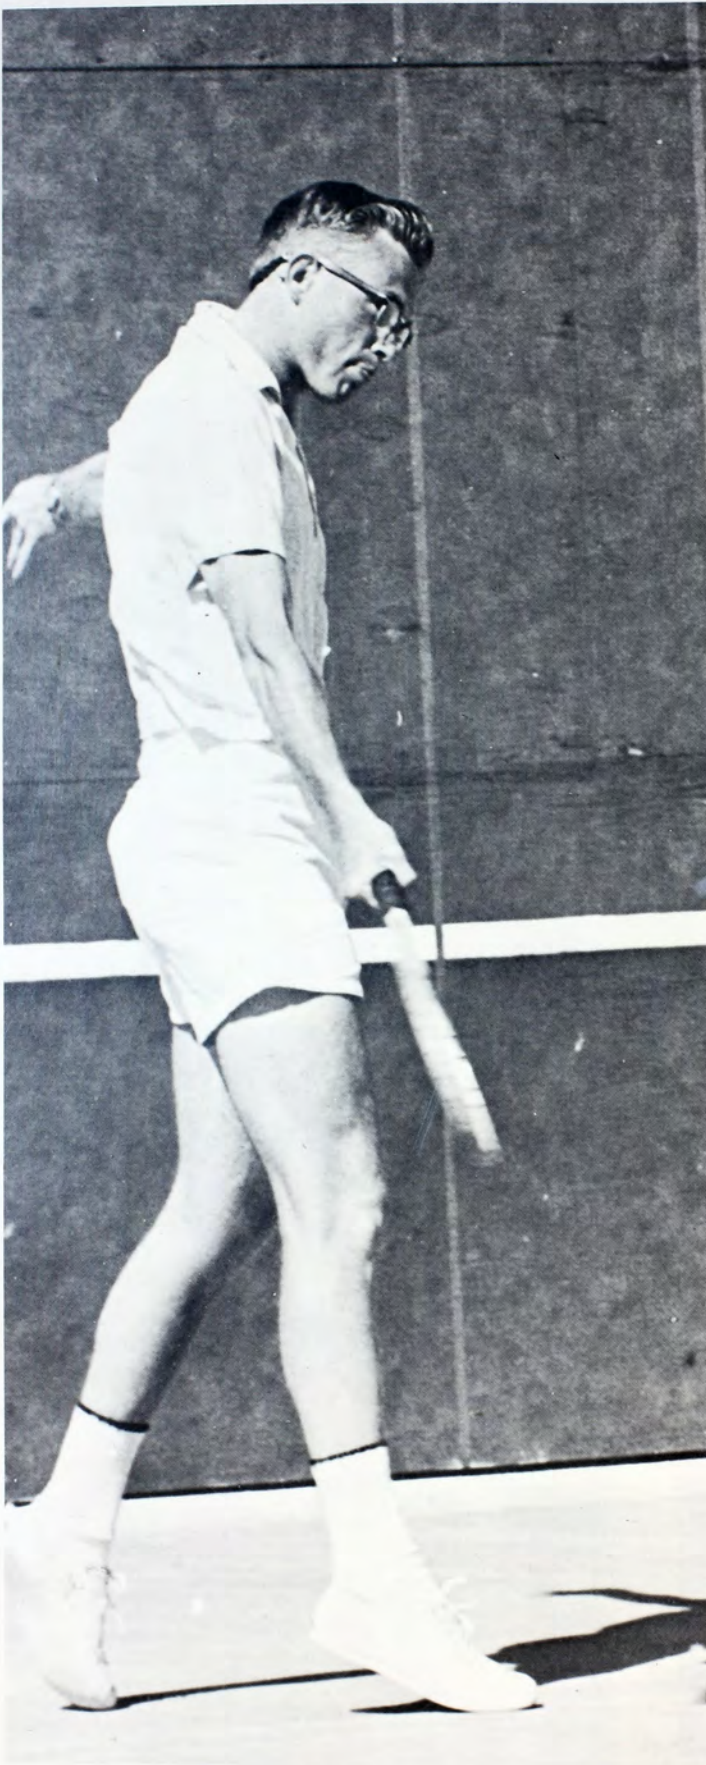

Jumping to two early wins, the Tigers defeated Kearney (Neb.) State 7-0 there and won over Bethany College 5-4 at home. Bethany rebounded to beat the Bengals 7-2 at Lindsborg and Kansas State University trimmed the Tigers 5-2 at Manhattan. Hosting Kearney State, the squad repeated its earlier 7-0 sweep of the Antelopes.

Pittsburg State bowed to the Bengals 5-4 at Emporia. Also at Emporia, Emporia State clipped FHS 5-4. At home the tennis team slipped by Garden City Junior College 4-3. In Topeka, Tiger netmen fell to Washburn University 4-3.

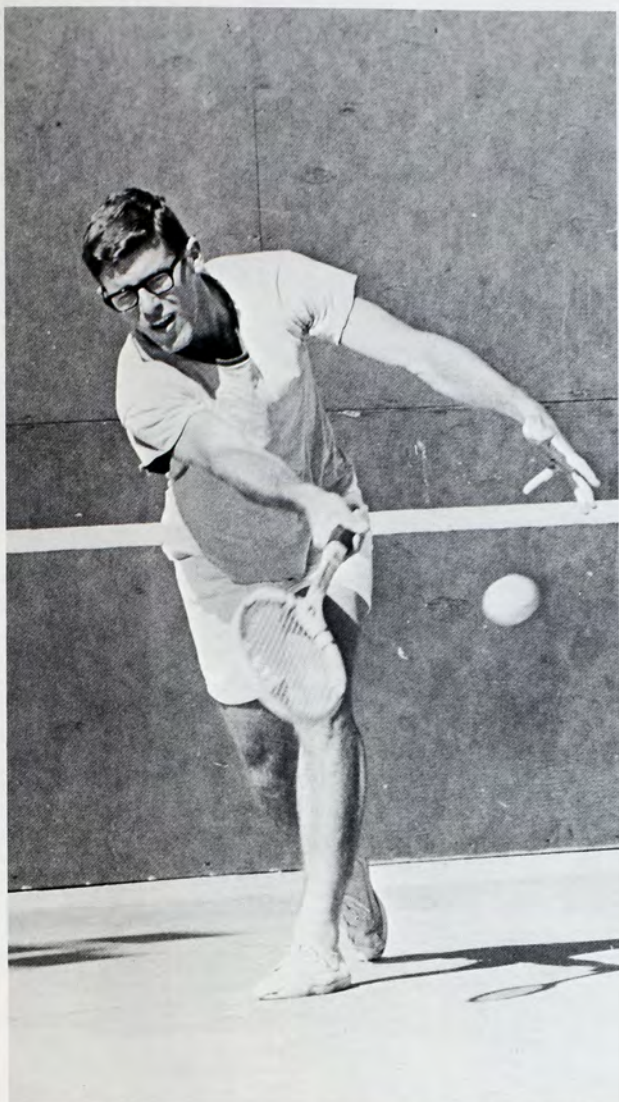

Winding up the regular season with three consecutive victories, the Bengals won easily over Hutchinson Junior College 7-3 in Hays, Garden City Junior College 6-1 at Garden City and Dodge City Junior College 7-0 at Dodge City.

Two Dual Wins Set Strong Track Pace

Setting the pace for the track season, Fort Hays State romped over Kearney (Neb.) State 96-79 and Wichita State 97-48 in dual meets.

Participating in three Texas Relay events, the Bengals placed second in the distance medley relay and third in the three-mile run.

In the Emporia Relays the Tigers captured firsts in the high jump, steeplechase and distance medley relay; second and third in the mile; third in the 880 relay and shot put; and fourth in the 120-yard high hurdles and the 440 relay.

In the Kansas Relays the distance medley and two-mile relay teams copped first, and Don Lakin took second in the 10,000-meter run.

Competing in the Drake Relays, the distance medley team placed second. Additional Tiger points were garnered by Lakin in the six-mile run and by the two-mile relay team.

Closing the relays season at Colorado University, FHS was first in the high jump and 880 relay, second in the 440 relay, third in the discus and third and fourth in the 100-yard dash.

In the CIC meet FHS scored 102½ points for the title, placing in 27 events, including eight first places. The NAIA championships put the frosting on the cake as the Tigers placed third with 44 points—most ever by an FHS team.

Up and over with plenty of room to spare goes high jumper Rod Williams.

Tigers Set Marks; Cop Third in NAIA

Winning third place in the NAIA national championships climaxed one of the best track and field seasons in Fort Hays State's history.

Earlier, the Tigers won the CIC crown in both cross country and outdoor track, copped the NAIA cross country title and wound up second in the first annual NAIA indoor track meet.

Records toppled all year as a total of 14 new marks were set and one tied in the outdoor season alone. The third place finish was a repeat for the Bengals in the NAIA race as were the CIC titles in cross country and outdoor track.

Establishing a record 9:50.4 clocking at the Drake Relays, Fort Hays State's distance medley team of Jack Harms, Lynn Havel, Jerry Katz and John Mason ranked first among smaller colleges in the nation and ninth among all colleges and universities throughout the country.

Bob Schmidt and Rod Williams tied for honors and set a new state all-time high jump record of 6-10 $\frac{3}{4}$  at the Colorado Relays.

Relay teams and distance runners John Mason and Don Lakin accounted for 10 new records during the year. Katz set a new time for the 880, Bernie Blevins heaved the shotput 53-8 for a record and Darwin Ashbaugh jumped 45-1 in the triple-jump to complete the list of record breakers.

1966 Marks Return Of Baseball to FHS

After an absence of 42 years, baseball returned as an intercollegiate sport at Fort Hays State. Playing 19 games, the squad posted a win-loss record of 7-12.

As a team, the Tigers batted .206, compared to the opponents' .226. The Bengals picked up 64 runs on 108 hits and 41 errors on the opposition. The opposition garnered 82 runs on 122 hits and 43 Tiger miscues.

On the basis of a minimum of 20 times at bat, Jon Mastin led Bengal batters with a .278 mark. Jim Dreiling led in runs-batted-in with nine and picked up the most total bases with 24. Belting the only Tiger homers of the season were Dreiling (one) and Ron Daise (one).

Defensively, Fort Hays State had a .932 fielding percentage to .934 for the opponents. Coach Bob Reising's squad had 419 putouts, 174 assists, five double plays and 43 errors. Opponents finished with 421 putouts, 160 assists, nine double plays and 41 errors.

Led by Bob Power with a 1.78 mark, the pitching crew compiled an ERA of 3.67 while the opponents finished with 2.88. Don Givens saw the most action, appearing in nine games and compiling a 2-3 mark. The right-hander gave up 29 hits, 18 runs, 17 walks and struck out 33.

Baseball coach Bob Reising, completing his first year as head of Tiger baseball fortunes, was named "Baseball Coach of the Year" for District 10 of the NAIA. Reising guided his Bengals to a 7-12 mark in their first baseball season in 42 years. In addition to coaching, Reising served as an assistant professor of English.

Sizing up a pitch, Jim Dreiling bats against Wichita State University. Wichita stopped the Tigers 6-2 in the game.

On a close call, Dennis Leiker slides into home plate against Sterling College. The Tigers split with the Warriors, winning 4-2 and losing 3-2.

Tigers Start Fast, Then Lose Punch

Winning their first five games, the 1966 baseball Tigers started fast but faltered as they won only two of their last 14 encounters.

In the season opener at home against Bethany College, the Bengals jumped to a 4-0 lead and never trailed as they went on to an 8-3 win.

Strong pitching by Terry Thomas and Don Givens led the Tigers to two more home victories, 5-1 and 3-1, over the Sterling College Warriors.

Traveling to Lindsborg for a rematch with Bethany, the Bengals won two, 6-2 and 11-3. Returning home, the Tigers dropped two heartbreakers to College of Emporia, 4-3 and 3-2.

In a doubleheader at Sterling College, the Bengals split with the Warriors, winning the opener 4-2 and dropping the second game 3-2.

At the Fort Hays Furlough, the Bengals entertained Wichita State University. The powerful Shockers proved too much for the Tigers as they banded out 11 hits to post a 6-2 victory.

Hosting Kearney (Neb.) State in a twin bill, the Tigers dropped the first game 2-0 but bounced back to win the second contest 2-1, running their record to 7-5. But that was to be the last victory of the season for Bob Reising's squad.

Washburn University subdued the Bengals 9-4 in the CIC tournament at Omaha. Continuing in the loser's bracket, the Tigers saw a 4-0 lead disappear as they lost to Emporia State 6-4.

Playing three teams at Emporia to close out the season, the Tigers first were shut out 4-0 by Emporia State. They then fell victims to a 19-4 bombing by Pan American College of Edinburg, Tex., and lost to College of Emporia 3-1.

Hopefuls compete for baseball squad positions at fall tryouts.

Organizations afford a wealth of opportunities for collegians to become actively engaged in the processes of campus betterment and community service and to develop socially and intellectually.

In addition to teaching the value of leadership and the importance of co-operation, participation in organizations offers a challenge for individual improvement and mutual understanding.

Through organizational activity collegians clarify many of their own attitudes and ideas and learn to cope effectively with various problems while conducting . . . show business.

In a constitutional election, the student body president gained veto power over legislation passed by the council.

Tribunal Concentrates On Parking Problem

Limited parking space on campus was the biggest problem confronting Traffic Tribunal, an organization composed of students and faculty members. The major responsibility facing the committee involved traffic planning.

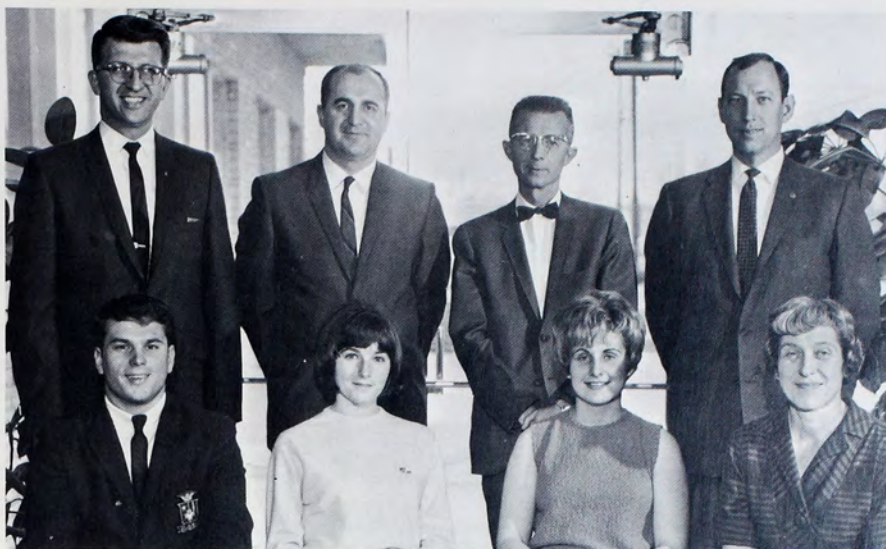

Meeting weekly, the members studied existing traffic regulations and recommended changes to President M. C. Cunningham. Other duties of the group included issuing special parking permits and handling cases concerning traffic violations. Merwin Colburn was chairman.

Both students and faculty served on the committee. SOC members selected Dr. Richard Burnett to serve as chairman.

Student Court Decides Campus Controversies

Student Court, a committee which acted on cases brought by the hearing committee, ASC, or other campus organizations, comprised the judicial branch of student government.

Members included all women regularly enrolled at Fort Hays State. Consequently, the group had the largest membership of all campus organizations.

To establish a workable situation, members elected representatives to AWS council, the executive, legislative and judicial body of the organization. Representatives were elected on the basis of one representative to approximately 50 girls.

Purposes of the organization included unifying women on campus, providing leadership opportunities for women, encouraging and developing intellectual curiosity and legislating rules pertaining to and governing women students on campus.

Religious organizations encourage Christian attitudes and give students an awareness of the importance of healthy moral standards.

In extending a mutual effort to draw others to Christianity, participants in these groups experience a common bond which often leads to lasting friendships. Organizational activities supply wholesome outlets for youthful energy.

Custer Hall

Continued growth of enrollment at Fort Hays State has stimulated construction of spacious housing facilities. Outdated buildings are giving way to more serviceable structures.

Custer Hall's dining room becomes the scene of the residence hall's annual Christmas formal.

Study sometimes gives way to less taxing endeavors.

McGrath Hall residents engage in a game of cards during their leisure hours.

Wooster Place provides comfortable, low-cost housing for married students.

Lewis Field Units Bow to Progress

Giving way to progress, 36 of 85 Lewis Field apartments, carry-overs from World War II, were razed and the remainder were slated to be torn down in the near future. They will gradually be replaced by additional new housing units.

Eighty-four spacious Wooster Place apartments provided modern, economical living for a limited number of married students during the year. Other couples found accommodations in mobile homes and apartments in the surrounding community.

Married student representatives to Student Council were Marilyn Wilson and John Stoskopf.

Mike and Jan Murphy hit the books, and Brian lends Mom a hand.

Serving FHS since 1947, Lewis Field housing is razed.

Fatherly duties and study can be combined, as Bill Brownell illustrates.

GREEKS

Permeating Greek life and stimulating unity within the various chapters is a healthy spirit of athletic, academic and social competition.

Social events promote fellowship and a sense of belonging. Each fraternity and sorority emphasizes loyalty for the organization and strives to create a feeling of . . . esprit de corps.

Panhellenic Council members are Bonnie Partin, Barbara Faulkner, Patsi Bale, Sammie May, Judi Sipe, Diane Smith, Sue Hudson, Sheryl Simmingar, Barbara Smith.

Councils Supply Support For Two Greek Weeks

Two Greek Weeks, sponsored by Panhellenic and Inter-Fraternity Councils, highlighted all-Greek activities this year. A week of fun, including canoe races, a new event, was held in the fall, in addition to the annual spring activities which featured Greek Sing, a picnic and games.

Delegates from five states attended the regional IFC conference at FHS, hosted by the local IFC. Junior IFC, a training program for pledges, sponsored an all-pledge dance each semester. Blaine Roberts was IFC president. Bill Jellison advised the group, which coordinates fraternity activities.

Planning of rush, an all-sorority slumber party, an all-Greek hootenanny and retreat for new Panhellenic officers were responsibilities carried out by Panhellenic Council. President was Judi Sipe. Jean Stouffer served as adviser.

Heaving a huge sack of trash into a truck, fraternity men display some of the debris cleared from the highways during Greek Week.

Sorority women disguised as witches give a skit for rushees about the rewards of going Greek.

Fall semester all-pledge King and Queen were Mike Tregallas, Sigma Phi Epsilon, and Martha Conn, Delta Zeta, second and third from left.

Alpha Gams Snare Greek Sing Trophy

By winning the women's division of Greek Sing for the third straight year, Alpha Gamma Delta earned permanent possession of the traveling trophy. Costumed as chimney sweeps, the women performed from a simulated London roof top.

As a Christmas project the Alpha Gams prepared packages for soldiers in Viet Nam. "England Swings" was the theme of their spring informal. The sorority chose Jim Johnson for Alpha Gam Man. He was honored at Alpha Gamma Delta's annual Rose Formal.

Alpha Gamma Delta's fall pledge class copped the scholarship plaque. Campus leaders from the group were Bonnie Partin, cheerleader; Bev Claassen, junior class vice-president; and Janet Powell, Student Council vice-president.

Members of Epsilon Mu chapter, began at FHS in 1959, wore camel-brown suits. Cheryl Cain was president. Housemother was Nina Fuller.

Amid an Oriental theme, Alpha Gamma Delta women welcome prospective pledges to their preferential party. The sorority attracted 19 pledges in the fall.

DZ Coeds Selected For Royalty Spots

Royalty from Delta Zeta graced the campus scene during the year. Tammy Weigel won Homecoming Queen honors. Eulonda Schoeni and Rebecca Diehl were elected Sweetheart Queen and second attendant, respectively. At the pledge dance, Martha Conn was crowned Pledge Queen.

Miss Schoeni and Miss Weigel were also among the seven Tiger cheerleaders. Carol Henderson and Phyllis Weigel were twirlers for the band.

Dressed as someone they had always wanted to be, DZs and their dates laughed at one another at a Suppressed Desire Party. In the spring they donned western garb for a Branding Party. The Rose Formal completed the dance schedule.

Projects of the sorority included contributing to Gallaudet College for the Deaf and sending clothes to a Navajo Indian Reservation.

White blazers characterized Delta Omega Chapter, launched at FHS in 1956. Elaine Thomas was president. Rea Marshall was housemother.

An old West background set the stage for the Delta Zeta Branding Party.

Sigma Kappa Stops Scholarship Plaque

Compiling the highest grade average, a 1.8, among campus sororities for the third consecutive year, the Sigma Kappa actives stopped the traveling scholarship plaque permanently.

Nancy Ward earned the title of "Best-Dressed Coed" on campus in a contest sponsored by GLAMOUR MAGAZINE. The sorority snared second place honors in the women's division of Greek Sing performances.

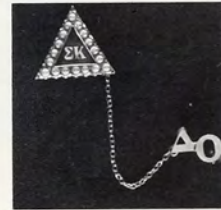

Highlighting the group's social events were an informal, held in a make-believe Indian village, and the Pearl and Violet Formal. Pledges gave an all-sorority tea on Valentine's Day.

For projects, Sigma Kappas sent clothing and money to the Maine Sea Coast Mission, presented Christmas gifts to needy families and visited senior citizens in a home at Victoria.

Sigma Kappas could be recognized by their black blazers. Delta Omicron chapter was introduced at FHS in 1959. Sharon Baier headed the group, and Elsie Veatch was housemother.

FHS Coed Named Nation's Top Sigma

Named the outstanding Sigma Sigma Sigma in the nation, Gloria McFarland received the Mabel Lee Walton Award for 1965. The award, presented to Miss McFarland at the sorority's national convention in New York City, recognizes collegiate leadership and distinctive potential.

Sigmas kept busy on campus. Sue Hudson presided over Associated Women Students; Judy Sipe headed Panhellenic Council, and four Sigma cheerleaders—Doris Leiker, Connie Smiley, Martha Daniel and Becky Bodenhamer—sparked the Tigers. At Homecoming festivities Miss Leiker was chosen first attendant to the Homecoming Queen.

Donating proceeds to the Robbie Page Memorial Fund, Sigmas shined shoes before big dances. They also treated underprivileged children to a Christmas party and found time to relax at a Barn Party. Jim Ford was named Sigma Sir, the group's favorite man, at the Deep Purple Formal.

Members of Alpha Gamma Delta chapter, started at FHS in 1925, wore navy-blue suits. Judy Rolfs was president. Agnes Townley was housemother.

Greek Sing First Nabbed by AKLs

Snapping Sigma Phi Epsilon's seven-year victory streak, Alpha Kappa Lambda nabbed first place at Greek Sing. Their skit portrayed a crew of sailors about to ship out to sea.

AKLs won the Homecoming float Sweepstakes for the third straight year with a huge, mobile dragon. Relying on fireworks for its ammunition, a cannon constructed from an oil drum by the AKLs added pep to Tiger football contests.

Campus politicians from the fraternity were Craig Beach, senior class president, and Randy Baxter, sophomore class president. Glenn Sekavec won the title of Bearded Joe. A Spring Splash Formal and the Go-To-Hell Party provided AKL members with opportunities for relaxation.

Gold blazers identified Alpha Delta chapter, started at FHS in 1961. Bruce Feldkamp was president. Lillian Gennette was housemother.

Burdened with the job of carting Mark Giese to class in a chariot during Help Week, AKL pledges Steve Hart and Danny Scott accept their task dutifully.

Delta Sigs Finalize New House Plans

Plans for building a new Delta Sigma Phi house were finalized in the spring. The $200,000 structure will spread over three and one half acres near the softball park and will house 60 men.

Delta Sigs sponsored Homecoming Queen Tammy Weigel and Sweetheart Queen Eulonda Schoeni. Bob Blackburn was selected Ugly Man on Campus.

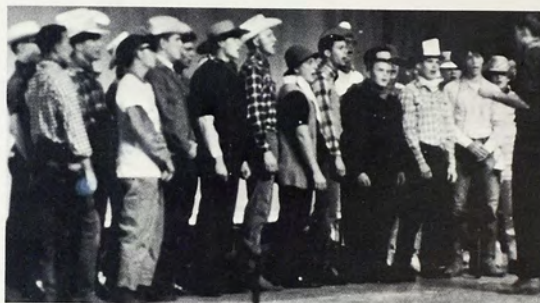

At Larned State Hospital Delta Sigs engaged in a baseball game with patients. Pledges gave a Christmas party at Hadley Memorial Hospital.

On the fraternity's schedule of dances were a formal, the Carnation Ball, and two informals, the Sphinx Ball and the Sailor's Ball, at which the Delta Sigs chose Betty Converse the coed with whom they would most like to be shipwrecked.

Dark green blazers identified Gamma Omicron chapter, launched in 1953. Jerry Lohrmeyer was president. Housemother was Ethel Elliott.

Reveille Queen Title To Phi Sig Choice

A sharp eye for beauty won Phi Sigma Epsilon an honor when their candidate was chosen Reveille Queen. Reva Deeds was judged the most beautiful coed at Fort Hays State by Deborah Bryant, the first Kansan to become Miss America.

Fall pledges of Phi Sigma Epsilon removed litter from the Highway 40 bypass. All members contributed to the Red Cross blood bank.

At their formal Phi Sigs and their dates danced amid the theme "Hawaiian Night." "Let's Go Native" was the theme of their informal. In March, Sigma Kappas splashed with the Phi Sigs at a swimming party in the college pool.

Zeta chapter of Phi Sigma Epsilon was established at the college in 1930. Members sported black blazers. Alan Thornburg headed the organization, and Fanny Riley was housemother.

Prometheans Eye National Affiliation

Spring of 1967 was set for the Prometheans' charter affiliation with Sigma Chi. The local fraternity began working toward national affiliation soon after its formation in 1962.

Men's division scholarship trophies went to the actives for the fourth consecutive semester and to the fall pledge class. The Ellis County Heart Assn. awarded the Prometheans first place among campus solicitors for the Heart Fund.

Vice-president of the sophomore class was Dave Aday. Three Prometheans won offices for the 1966-67 college year at spring election. Student voters elected Aday student body vice-president, Gary Vernon senior class president and Keith Bunselmeyer junior class president.

Selected on the same merits as a Sweetheart of Sigma Chi, Sally Strobel was honored as the Prometheans' sweetheart at their spring formal.

Navy blue blazers distinguished members of Prometheans. Heading the organization was Gary Vernon. Nina Stuart served as housemother.

Invited by the Prometheans, Sigma Kappas pay a visit at a card party.

Brains, Brawn Get Sig Eps Trophies

Classroom and athletic abilities gained Sigma Phi Epsilon trophies for compiling the highest grade average among Kansas chapters and for winning the fraternity's state basketball title.

Personalities were Paul Monty, student body president; Loren Pepperd, junior class president; and Bud Partridge, Sweetheart King.

Sig Eps sponsored Doris Leiker, first attendant to Homecoming Queen; Janet Barnett, first attendant to Reveille Queen; and Rebecca Diehl, second attendant to Sweetheart Queen.

Blue Mountain Blast and the Golden Heart Ball highlighted the fraternity's social activities. As a community project, Sig Eps sold tickets to the Lincoln Grade School PTA Carnival.

Red blazers typified Kansas Zeta chapter, begun at FHS in 1958. Gary McFarland was president. Moms were Esther Eslinger and Grace Wilson.

Trophies garnered by Sig Eps are shown by Loren Pepperd, Mick Cannon and Rod Smrcka. State firsts in scholarship and basketball went to the fraternity.

Sig Taus Execute Dribbling Marathon

Pledges of Sigma Tau Gamma renewed a customary distance marathon this year as they dribbled a basketball from Hays to Ellis. From a point just west of Hays, the men bounced the ball along 11 miles of Highway 40 to Ellis.

Sig Taus were well represented in campus activities by Gary Kisner, who edited the Leader; Tom Sprenkel, who directed KFHS, the campus radio station; and Eldon Palmberg, who spearheaded the Fort Hays Furlough steering committee.

Informal dress was the byword for the Sig Taus' Hobo-a-go-go Party, but the situation was reversed at the annual White Rose Formal.

Eta chapter, established at FHS in 1926, is the oldest existing fraternity on campus. Members wore French blue blazers. Andy Nelson was president. Ida Thomas served as housemother.

Sig Taus' version of a Batmobile was the fraternity's contribution to the Diamond Days Parade, which saluted the return of baseball as a major sport to FHS.

TKEs Nab Honors At Greek Activities

Athletic prowess won Tau Kappa Epsilon several trophies. At fall Greek Week, TKEs excelled both on land and in water. The fraternity's runners raced to first place in the chariot race finals at half-time of the FHS-Kearney State football game, and TKE canoeists paddled past the Sig Taus to win the interfraternity canoe races.

Physical skill also brought the fraternity the intramural touch football championship.

Sending their acquisitions to Barber-Scotia College in Concord, S. C., the TKEs held a drive for textbooks and other reading materials.

Sigma Sigma Sigma sorority honored Jim Ford as Sigma Sir and sponsored Joe Dunham, who was chosen first runner-up to Sweetheart King.

Nightwear and togas were donned by TKEs and their dates for the fraternity's two informals, Pajama Party and Roman Holiday. More formal attire was required for the Red Carnation Ball.

Men of Alpha Upsilon chapter, launched at the college in 1942, sported burgundy blazers. Herb Songer was elected president, and Marguerite Thompson served as the group's housemother.

Togas were the password for the TKE Roman Holiday informal.

Fort Hays Staters become caught up in the whirl of the college's ever-changing moods. Like the turn of a kaleidoscope, scenes shift rapidly.

At one moment, tense, tired faces fill the campus, and lights burn brightly far into the night as students cram for crucial final examinations.

At another, the air fairly buzzes with activity as a highlight of the year draws near.

There are also quiet times alone with one's thoughts, treasured moments with that certain someone and occasions for gaining new friends.

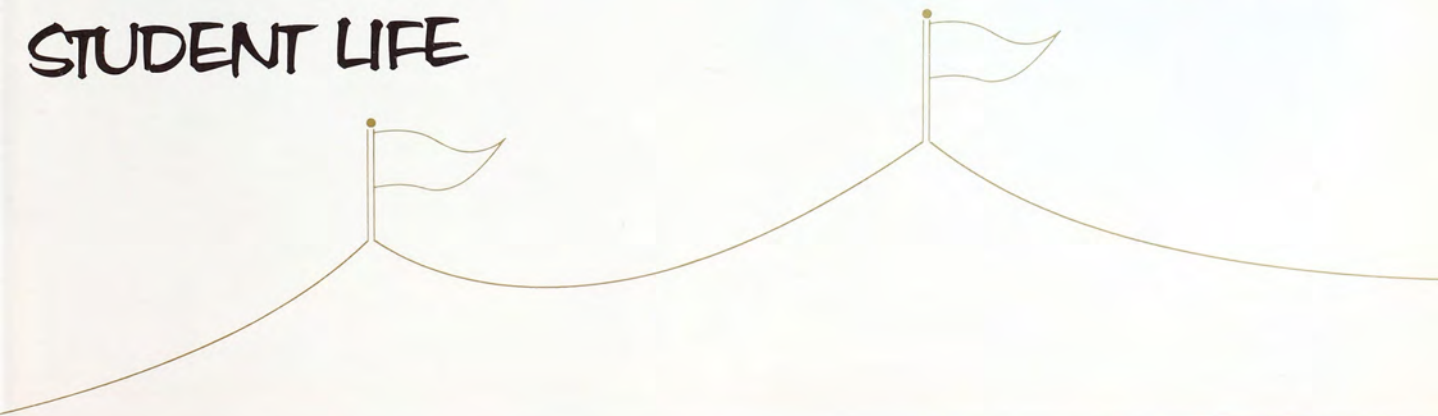

All these aspects of college life play a role in the overall development of the student and generate . . . more fun than a barrel of monkeys.

STUDENT LIFE

Enrollment Tops 4,700; 1,644 Freshmen Enroll

Clothes are a girl's biggest asset. Carol Shamburg and Kathy Low enter their residence hall room with wardrobes while Carol's mother looks on.

Students arrived with a barrage of belongings to claim living quarters, the college flung open its doors, the campus sprang to life and another year got underway.

Enrollment soared to 4,778, highest in the college's 64-year history as 1,644 freshmen enrolled. Registration lines ran more smoothly than in previous years because of a change in procedure. Upperclassmen enrolled Wednesday and Thursday while freshmen tackled the task Friday.

Unknowning frosh suffered the usual frayed nerves as they filled out a maze of cards, scurried here and there to obtain help from advisers and struggled through a lengthy line of purchasers at the book store.

They soon began to feel more at home, however. Dr. and Mrs. Cunningham extended personal greetings at the President's customary open house. The annual Tiger Hop provided a chance to become acquainted.

Orientation meetings and the activities merry-go-round helped familiarize them with college rules and the campus and afforded an opportunity to join organizations.

After overcoming the anxieties of locating first-day classes, they discovered a less hectic pace and were well on their way to becoming full-fledged collegians.

With a rush, a stream of students pours into Sheridan Coliseum to begin enrollment procedure.

Filling out registration cards is a tedious undertaking.

Slated for fall delivery this year for the first time, tons of Reveilles arrived for distribution. Members of Seventh Cavalry and Alpha Phi Omega helped unload and distribute the books.

Line of students waiting to purchase books continued endlessly each day for more than a week after enrollment.

Dr. John Garwood, dean of the faculty, gains rapt attention of students while airing views.

Retreaters Deliberate 'Roles of the Student'

Discussion at the fourth annual Student-Faculty Retreat centered around "The Roles of the Student in a Campus Community." Forty-two students and 32 faculty members spent a day at Camp Pecusa on Webster Lake near Stockton where they hashed out problems of mutual concern.

Taking advantage of the informal situation, they attempted to define through an exchange of views "The Academic Role," "The Role of a Responsible Citizen" and "The Role of a College Policy Maker."

Through a relaxed atmosphere retreat purports to encourage free and constructive debate on college issues among students and faculty.

Faculty members and students alike engage in a game of touch football.

More than 300 hungry fraternity and sorority members turned out for the Greek Week picnic in the city park.

Relieving the tension of academic demands, AKLs unwind at the picnic.

Greek Week Changed; Becomes Fall Highlight

Fraternities and sororities accelerated the fall activity schedule by holding Greek Week in September, to stimulate unity among participating organizations.

Addition of canoe races to competitive events created spirit and interest, as well as sore muscles.

Weekend activities began with an all-Greek dance to the music of the Renegades Friday night. At a Saturday breakfast, sorority women entertained prospective rush-ees, who were then taken on a tour of Greek houses by fraternity men. Greeks picnicked in the city park at noon, then adjourned to Big Creek for the canoe races.

Tau Kappa Epsilon dominated special events, grabbing championships in the canoe and chariot races.

After having nosed out Sigma Tau Gamma to win the canoe races, the TKEs won handily over Sigma Phi Epsilon in the chariot race finals at halftime of the FHS-Kearney State football contest Saturday night.

Winning the Greek tug-o-war, held between the preliminaries and finals of the canoe races, was a team composed of Delta Sigma Phi, Alpha Kappa Lambda, Sigma Tau Gamma and Phi Sigma Epsilon members. They defeated a team of Sig Eps, TKEs and Prometheans.

Sig Taus, AKLs, Delta Sigs and Phi Sigs outlast Sig Eps, TKEs and Prometheans in hard-fought tug-o-war battle over Big Creek.

TKEs nose out Sig Taus for canoe race championship.

Competition ran keen during the Greek canoe races. Here the Sig Eps hold to a slim lead as the AKLs fight to catch up.

Invited as guests to the college on Parents' Day, parents visited with sons and daughters, attended special programs and toured the campus at will.

During his tour of the campus Gov. Avery found time for light conversation with President Cunningham and students.

Governor Pays Unprecedented Visit to Campus

Five good-natured volunteers clown with the cheerleaders in the performance of a skit at the first pep rally of the football season in Sheridan Coliseum.

Kansas Gov. William Avery paid an unprecedented visit to the campus in October and gleaned first-hand knowledge of the college's needs.

Accompanied by a delegation of state officials, Avery toured the housing area by bus, met with FHS administrators and took a walking tour of the campus proper. President M. C. Cunningham addressed the delegation in Memorial Union.

Other highlights heading the October agenda were Parent's Day and campus elections.

Moms and Dads saw a program featuring the Tiger football band and the Concert Choir and were guests at receptions at Greek houses and residence halls. They were also invited to attend the FHS-Central Missouri State football game.

At the polls, a field of 17 Homecoming Queen candidates were narrowed to five and student council and class officers were determined.

Prospective pledges weigh the offerings of Greek life at an Alpha Kappa Lambda smoker. Here Bobbi Barrows distributes cigarettes.

With 49 candidates running for 17 campus offices and 17 coeds vying for Homecoming Queen, 1,494 student voters turned out to mark their choices in the October election.

Posters splashed in conspicuous campus spots promote favorites and urge a trek to the polls.

Pep Rally Prompts Homecoming Fervor

Anticipation sky-rocketed as Homecoming drew near. Last-minute preparations were hurriedly completed, and finally all was in readiness.

Students unharnessed the exuberant enthusiasm characteristic of the affair at the pep rally Friday evening to kick off festivities. A snake dance and bonfire highlighted the rally, and from all the excitement Tammy Weigel emerged queen.

Saturday morning 2,000 pounds of freshmen sent a like poundage of sophomores plunging into the waters of Big Creek to become the second freshman team to win the annual tug-o-war.

Thirty bands, three drill teams and 20 competitive floats portraying the theme "Fables and Fairytales" comprised a gala Homecoming parade.

Emporia State supplied the opposition for Saturday afternoon's football contest, and the Tigers rose to the occasion to swat the Hornets 42-7. The crowning of Miss Weigel by President Cunningham highlighted halftime ceremonies.

Indian summer weather and the cross country team's lopsided 15-50 victory over Kearney (Neb.) State added zest to a successful celebration.

Homecoming Observance

Clark Engel acknowledges the honor after accepting the "Busch" Gross Award from Harold Stones, executive secretary of the Alumni Assn.

Capturing the sweepstakes award for the third straight year was Alpha Kappa Lambda with "Tigers Dragon the Hornets to Defeat."

The Prometheans' float, which copped first place in the men's division, depicted Puff treating himself to a delicacy of Hornets.

Adapting a float theme from the classic fable "Seven in One Blow," Alpha Gamma Delta snared first place in the women's division.

Emporia State Hornets were cast at the mercy of an angel-winged Tiger in Newman Club's "Justice Conquers," the independent winner.

Among those present for the unveiling of the bust of the late Henry Malloy and dedication of Malloy Hall were President M. C. Cunningham, Mrs. Malloy and Wallace Steeples, a charter member of Phi Mu Alpha fraternity, which promoted the purchase of the bust.

Mirrors Traditions

Throughout the Homecoming observance, the honoring of alumni and other individuals reflected growing traditions of an expanding college.

Official dedication of Malloy Hall assured permanent recognition of the many years service of Henry Malloy, James Start and Lucille Felten.

Sculptured by John Berland, a bronze bust of Malloy was unveiled as a tribute of Phi Mu Alpha fraternity alumni and friends. A Sigma Alpha Iota Alumnae Chapter luncheon honored Miss Felten.

Fort Hays Furlough Work-Scholarship winners were Joseph Thomasson, James Adams, Jerry Michel, Larry Kruse and Charles Lovenstein.

Selected as recipient of the "Busch" Gross Award was Clark Engel, 1964 graduate and four-year letterman in track and football.

Events were well attended with an estimated 7,500 lining Main Street for the parade and over 9,000 turning out to witness the Tiger football victory over Emporia State.

Alpha Kappa Lambda captured the sweepstakes award in float competition. Other winners were independents, Newman Club; men, Prometheans, first, and Sigma Phi Epsilon, second; women, Alpha Gamma Delta, first, and Sigma Sigma Sigma, second.

"Mr. Tiger, would you like to lead the next yell?" inquires Eulonda Schoeni.

Boaming happily, Homecoming Queen Tammy Weigel is escorted to the football field for crowning ceremonies. She is flanked by Doris Leiker, first attendant, and Sue Ann Mapes, second attendant. Royalty was determined by student vote.

Two Plays Kick Off New Drama 65-66

New Drama 65-66 presented the first two of its slated four major productions in October and November.

There were four reasons behind the selection of the name New Drama 65-66 for the presentations.

First, this year marked the first time that the new Felten-Start Theater was used for a major dramatic production. Second, a new staff, Perry Schwartz and Robert Reinecke, headed the drama department. Third, all four plays selected were contemporary dramas. Finally, increased emphasis was placed on theater and drama.

Opening the year's dramatic performances was "A Thousand Clowns," a comedy concerned with an unemployed television script writer and his difficulties as he tried to keep his 13-year-old nephew as his ward.

Second on the agenda was "Rhinoceros," which dealt with an epidemic of "rhinocertitis" which struck a small village. One by one, inhabitants turned into rhinoceroses until only one, Berenger, was left. More deeply, the play was concerned with the conformity of society and one individual's struggle to fight that conformity.

Included in the cast for "A Thousand Clowns" were Kenneth Bauer, Rob Sackett, James Edgar Brumitt, Polly Ann Williams, Doug Teel and Wayne Alan Sipe.

Cast in "Rhinoceros" were Chris O'Donnell, Kathy Stiles, Calene Bomgardner, Don Richardson, Arthur Dirks, Loren Nodine, Kenneth Bauer, Murray Anderson, Frederick Deal, Janet Pechanec, Dale Schields, Wayne Alan Sipe, Bruce Feldkamp, Eileen Baker and Gerald Daise.

Disgusted but concerned, Berenger (Arthur Dirks) looks on as Jean (Don Richardson) undergoes the transformation into a rhinoceros.

Heatedly, Jean (at left) and Berenger (second from left) argue about a rhinoceros which has just run past. Were there one or two? Other villagers watch the argument with keen interest.

Greek Peek Launches Sorority Rush Events

In early November the question of whether to go Greek once again presented itself to Fort Hays State coeds.

Sorority rush began informally before mid-semester at Greek Peek. All interested women were invited to this Coke social, sponsored by Panhellenic Council, to learn of the offerings of Greek life. Striving to create a relaxed atmosphere in which they could become acquainted with rushees, sorority women performed a comedy skit.

After mid-semester grades were issued, rushees possessing a C average or better were allowed to attend Sunday teas sponsored by the sororities. Here they became familiar with the individual organizations and toured the houses.

From prospective pledges each sorority chose those whom it wished to invite to its two preferential parties during Rush Week. Amid colorful decorations, rushees visited with sorority women and received refreshments.

They then stated their sorority preferences; sororities sent out bids, and formal pledging occurred the next Sunday. Of the 145 women who started rush procedures, 65 pledged the four national sororities on campus. Sigma Sigma Sigma led in pledges with 20. Alpha Gamma Delta had 19; Delta Zeta attracted 18, and Sigma Kappa garnered 8.

While touring the Delta Zeta house, rushees view scrapbooks. These tours help them to decide which sororities they prefer.

Prospective pledges are served punch at the Alpha Gamma Delta house. Other sororities served similar refreshments at Sunday teas.

At their preferential party portraying the theme Hellenic Holiday, Sigma Sigma Sigma women sing a traditional sorority song to rushees.

Taking the last critical step before pledging, Sigma Kappa rushees are bid a good night by Sigma Kappa women carrying candles.

Madrigal Dinner, Reveille Ball Highlight December

Highlighting December activities were the Madrigal Dinner and the Reveille Ball.

Costumes and settings characteristic of the Old English Period set the atmosphere for the dinner, attended by students, faculty and townspeople. Memorial Union Director Jerry Ruttman and the Fort Hays Singers provided entertainment with Old English flavor for the two-night event.

Garnering one of the largest crowds since it was begun, the Reveille Ball featured the music of the college stage band. Reva Deeds, sponsored by Phi Sigma Epsilon, was named Reveille Queen by Miss America Deborah Bryant.

First attendant was Janet Barnett, sponsored by Sigma Phi Epsilon, and second attendant was Nancy Light, sponsored by McMinder Hall.

Spreading the Christmas spirit, the Memorial Union treated faculty and student children to a visit with Santa Claus at its Christmas Party. Other campus groups and organizations also held parties so that all collegians experienced the excitement of the holiday season.

As is traditional, shortly before Christmas vacation President M. C. Cunningham was presented a tree bearing cards from campus organizations.

Christmas Vespers in Sheridan Coliseum featured the men's and women's glee clubs, the Concert Band and other instrumental groups.

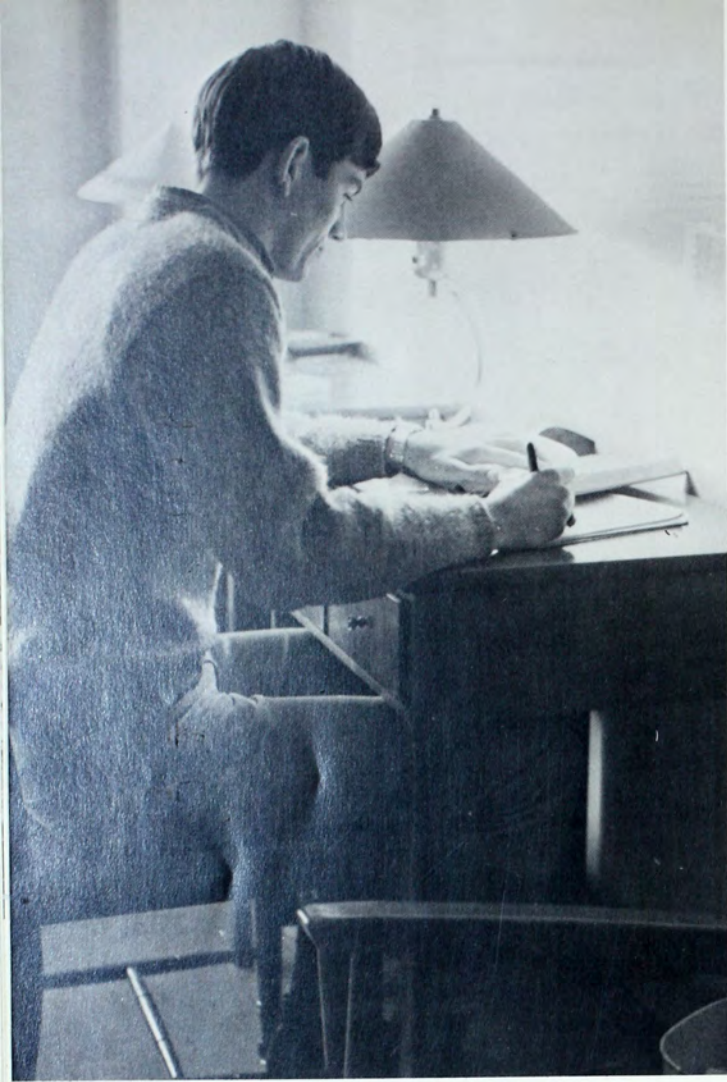

Brisk air greets coeds on the morning after the first snow of the college year.

After receiving the traditional Christmas card tree at a morning ceremony in Memorial Union, President M. C. Cunningham extends thanks and wishes students a merry Christmas, a happy New Year and a safe journey home for the holiday.

on Fall Honor Roll

Capped by the nerve-racking pressure and exhaustion of final examinations, the fall semester produced mixed emotions in the students.

Some, among them the 844 who earned recognition of the Dean's Honor Roll, found the term satisfying. For the 33 who achieved perfect 3.00 (A) averages, it was one of much elation.

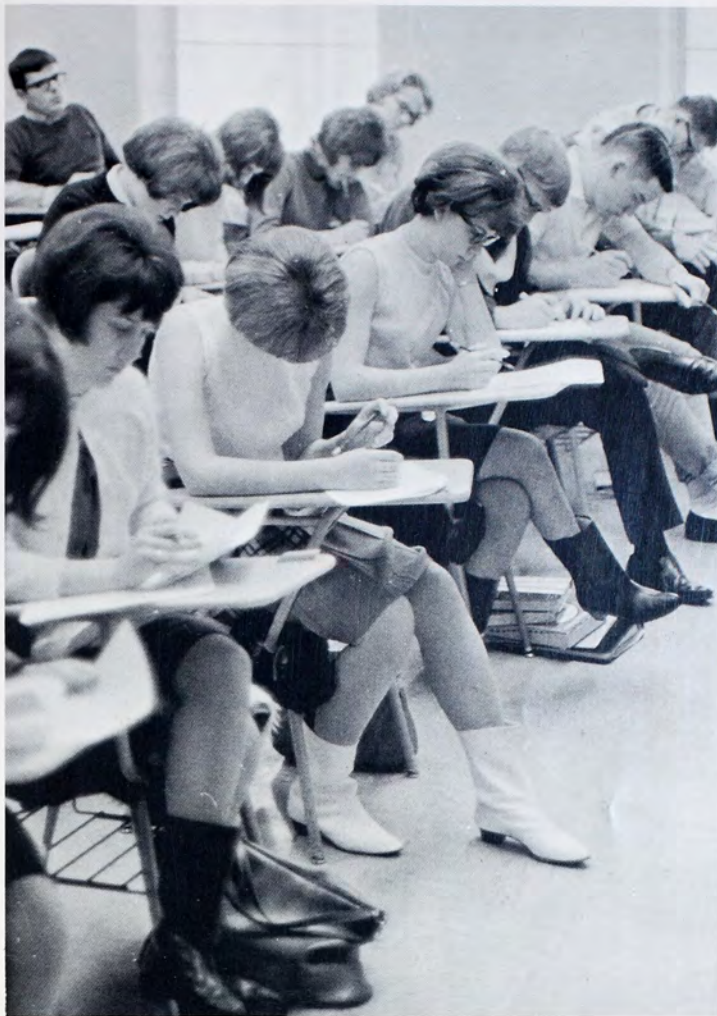

To gain recognition on the honor roll, a student must carry at least 10 hours of classes and compile a 2.00 (B) average or better.

For those students with lesser averages, emotions ran the gamut from mild satisfaction to utter frustration. Men with low indexes became increasingly aware of rising demands for recruits brought about by the war in Viet Nam.

All, however, were relieved when tests were completed and term papers submitted, allowing a retreat into a blissful four-day vacation before enrollment for the spring semester.

Enjoying the only assignment-free vacation of the year, many students went home to work or simply to eat, sleep and loaf. A few skiing enthusiasts headed for Colorado's snowy mountains.

Even though a few decided not to return for the second semester, new and transfer students helped keep spring enrollment near that of the fall. Enrollment procedures ground out routinely, students plunged into the whirl of the shorter, more intensive second semester, and the last half of the yearly college show was underway.

Nerves are tense and concentration keen as students tackle final tests.

Recollection of an answer is sometimes inhibited by the intense pressure and electric atmosphere during critical examination periods.

Folk Singers Score Hit in Appearance

Kicking off January attractions were the Back Porch Majority. The modern folk-singing group scored a big hit with Fort Hays State students.

George Roberts, considered the outstanding personality on bass trombone, was featured in the second annual Varsity Show in February. College instrumental and vocal groups and music faculty also provided entertainment for the event.

Other February highlights included the Sweetheart Ball and Leap Week, which was climaxed by a dance, featuring the music of the Renegades.

Twelve suspicious-looking characters vied for the dubious honor of Ugly Man on Campus in December. The contest was sponsored by Alpha Phi Omega to raise funds for student loan programs.

Receiving the robe of Sweetheart Queen from Dr. Bill Jellison, dean of men, is Eulonda Shoeni, sponsored by Delta Sigma Phi. Sweetheart King was Robert Partridge, sponsored by Delta Zeta. Student body vote determined royalty.

Care to venture a guess as to which of these rogues was selected Ugly Man on Campus? The dubious honor went to Bob Blackburn (back row, third from right), sponsored by Delta Sigma Phi. Ballots were a penny a vote.

Silhouetted against the curtains of the stage, the Back Porch Majority (at left) drew spontaneous outbursts of applause from a large crowd during a two-hour performance in Sheridan Coliseum.

Mr. Bass Trombone, George Roberts, was the featured performer at the second annual Varsity Show in Sheridan Coliseum in February.

Named Daisy Mae and Bearded Joe at the Leap Week dance, featuring the music of the Renegades, were Gloria Carpenter and Glenn Sekavec.

Canada's "Les Feux Follets" Hit FHS Spotlight

February's Artists and Lectures series presentation was "Les Feux Follets," a troupe of Canadian musicians. Using more than 600 costumes and properties, plus authentic musical instruments, the 65 performers in the company presented old and modern music in the Canadian tradition.

Then, in March the Memorial Union Pops series brought recording artist Glenn Yarbrough, known for his 1965 hit "Baby, the Rain Must Fall," to campus. Weaving touches of humor into his performance, Yarbrough sang modern folk music.

Other March highlights included the 50-member Goldovsky Opera Company, which staged Puccini's "La Boheme," and M. Victor Gares, French consul-general in Denver, who discussed travel and study opportunities in his country. The opera company was sponsored by the Artists and Lectures series, and French Club sponsored Gares' visit.

Democratic-Justice candidate Jo Anne Murphy defeated the Collegiate Unification candidate by a count of 524-451 for the Student Body presidency.

Spring Election Held; Top Spot to Murphy

Jo Anne Murphy copped the Student Body presidency in the first spring election ever conducted at FHS.

Posters supporting the two newly formed campus political parties, Democratic-Justice and Collegiate Unification, appeared in many spots and added interest.

More than 1,000 students voted in the election in which the D-J Party snared 11 of 18 All-Student-Council and class offices. Running on the D-J ticket with Miss Murphy, Dave Aday won the ASC vice-presidency.

Named "Best-Dressed Coed" in the first such contest at the college was Nancy Ward. Held in March, the contest, nationally sponsored by GLAMOUR MAGAZINE, was organized by the Memorial Union program committee. Runners-up were Sharon Loomis and Judyanne Mustoe.

In April, Tiger fans ushered in Fort Hays State's first baseball season in 42 years as they boarded decorated cars, trucks, floats and motorcycles and formed a Diamond Days parade, which culminated in a pep rally at Larks Park where the baseball squad was introduced.

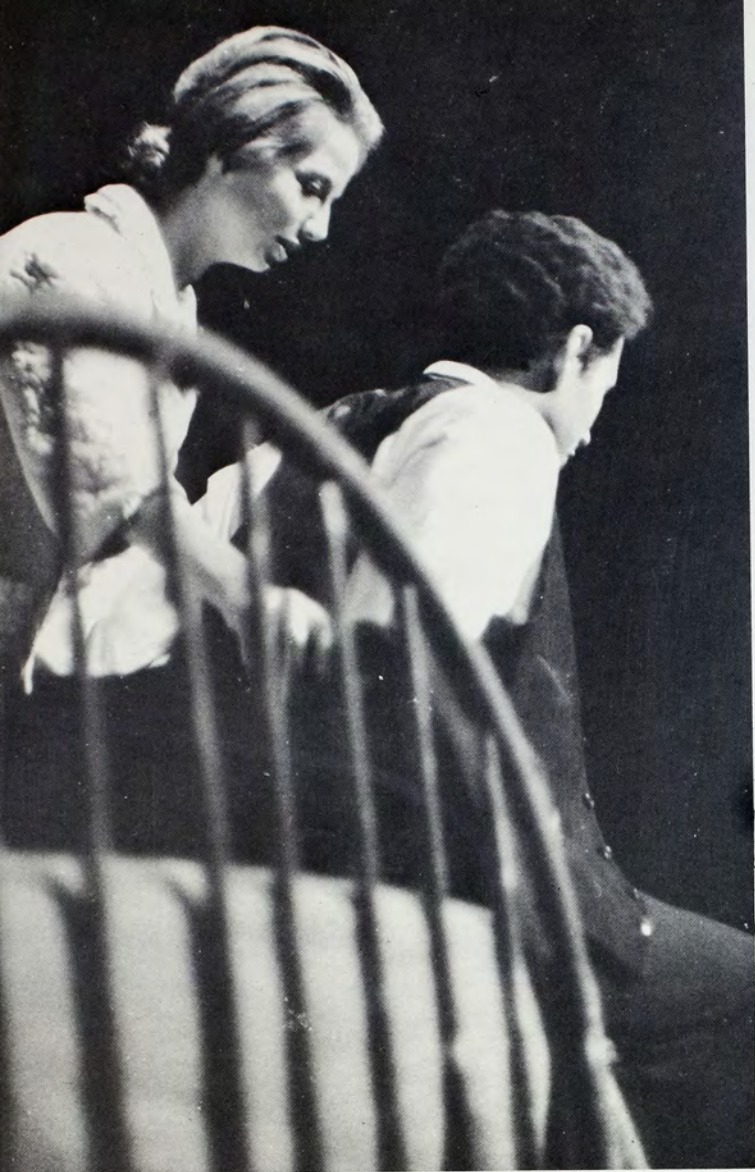

At the polls, voters wait in line to cast their ballots.

"Best-Dressed Coed" at FHS this year was Nancy Ward (center). Runners-up were Judyanne Mustoe (left) and Sharon Loomis.

Three Get Oscars From Little Theater

Outstanding dramatic performances in "Death of a Salesman" earned Little Theater Oscars for two cast members. Sue Ostrander and Ken Bauer, cast as Linda Loman and a son Biff, claimed the awards as best actress and actor. Don Richardson received a special Oscar for stage management.

Arthur Miller's tragedy relates the story of a traveling salesman, Willie Loman, who believed that the key to success lies in being well-liked by everyone. The sad effects of his philosophy were seen in the attitudes of his sons and in the downhill slide of his own business career.

Members of the cast, directed by Perry Schwartz, were Art Dirks, Sue Ostrander, Ken Bauer, Wayne Sipe, Fred Deal, Doug Teel, Loren Nodine, Richard Nix, Diane Legg, Lane Rolland, Tamara Wheeler, Cherri Ruder and Chris O'Donnell.

In a flashback, Willie's successful brother (Loren Nodine) pays a visit, impressing the boys (Ken Bauer and Wayne Sipe) with his discovery of diamond mines in deepest Africa.

Two Plays Close Drama Productions

Final productions of New Drama 65-66 were two one-act plays, "The Tiger" and "The Typist," by Murray Schisgal. These plays continued the trend set by three previous productions, of investigation of the individual's relationship to society.

Day-to-day drabness and tedium of the lives of two people was the theme of "The Typist." Sylvia Payton and Paul Cunningham worked side by side each day in an office, each dreaming and hoping for something a little better, but neither going out to look for it. Finally it became apparent that they had accomplished nothing but to grow older.

Calene Bomgardner was cast as Sylvia, and Ken Bauer as Paul, the typist.

"The Tiger" began with the abduction of a woman off the street and into a basement room. There Ben informed Gloria that she was his prisoner to do with as he wished. Proceeding to instruct her on the ills of society, he discovered that she was actually an intelligent woman. Overcoming her fright, Gloria was able to become Ben's friend, help him with his French and make a date to return.

Gloria was played by Bobbi Blanding and Ben was played by Don Richardson. Both plays were directed by Perry Schwartz, instructor in speech.

Top: During his first day on the job, Paul (Ken Bauer) is familiarized with office procedures by Sylvia (Calene Bomgardner).

Bottom: Paul displays his dexterity as he operates both typewriters at once.

Formality of Events Varies in Spring

Balmy spring and high student spirits arrived at FHS simultaneously, inspiring activities from most informal to very formal. Numerous pinnings and engagements called for serenades.

Students dug out cut-offs and sandals for picnics in the country or at the lake. In anticipation of one of many formal dances given by residence halls and Greek organizations, boys acquired tuxedos and girls spent afternoons in the beauty shop.

Sentimental lyrics of the sweetheart song initiate the proceedings at a typical TKE serenade.

Getting in on the rodeo excitement, the McGrath Hall men attempt to put a rider on a calf they have roped and saddled. The special event gave students a chance to try their hand in the rodeo arena.

Rodeo, Greeks Stir Excitement in May

Greek Week activities and the first FHS Rodeo filled the early part of May with excitement. Held in conjunction with Greek Week, Greek Sing kept some groups busy with extra preparations.

Rodeo Club, formed last year, planned and hosted the first annual FHS Rodeo and captured overall first place as well. FHS cowboys who won firsts were Roger McCabe, calf roping, Neil Barstow, bull riding, and Joe Hedrick, a tie in bareback riding. Kearney State College entered the first place women's team and University of Nebraska claimed the all-around cowboy and cowgirl.

Eleven colleges joined FHS in the two-night event, held at the quarterhorse grounds, east of Hays.

Rodeo Club members, Gloria Carpenter, Cynthia Hutchins, Glenda Rudolph, Pat Ferry, and Cheryl Scott, were candidates for Rodeo Queen, with top honor going to Miss Rudolph.

Criteria for the judging of Greek Sing this year included not only the singing by the groups, but also the staging of the numbers. Alpha Gamma Delta and Sigma Kappa claimed first and second places among the sororities, and top men's honors went to Alpha Kappa Lambda, first, and Tau Kappa Epsilon, second.

Highway clean-up, a dance, a picnic and contests, including pie throwing, egg-batting, piggy-back races, and a mock striptease, rounded out activities for Greeks' weekend of fun.

112 Artists Display Work at Exhibition

Seven FHS students received the Mabel Vandiver Award for art achievement at the opening of the Student Art Exhibition. Representing the work of 112 artists, the exhibition was made up of a variety of media, including painting, sculpture, jewelry, design, ceramics and graphics.

Sixty-four high schools flooded the Industrial Arts Fair with 2,100 entries. Projects ranging from furniture to farm machinery were judged by a team of industrial arts instructors from Kearney, Neb., who picked a walnut TV-stereo console for top honors.

Rain and chilly weather failed to halt Furlough activities, as the Women's Recreation Assn. team completed the women's 10-mile bicycle race with a first place time of 44:37.5.

At the faculty auction, students take the opportunity to bid on James Costigan.

Judy Marcotte is announced as Furlough queen.

Rounding a curve, entrants begin the first lap of the grueling 30-mile relay bicycle race.

McGrath Hall Nabs Third Bicycle Title

At the third annual Fort Hays Furlough, McGrath Hall's speedy bicycle team pedaled to first place for the third consecutive year, covering the 30 miles in a record time of one hour, 36 minutes.

In addition to the men's and women's bicycle races, the FHS baseball team played Wichita State at Larks Park and an intra-squad football battle was waged between the Black and Gold teams.

Crowning of Furlough Queen Judy Marcotte and her attendants, Doris Leiker and Karen Folkerts, a dance and faculty slave auction added to the fun-filled atmosphere of Furlough weekend.

Sponsored by the Endowment Assn. and guided by a student committee, Furlough provided work, scholarships and fun.

Dancing to waltz music, Marla Folkerts and other dancers perform a ballet.

Displaying their usual lively stage presence, the Impromptuos deliver a favorite selection with Mary Maude Moore.

1966 Production Is Last for Poise 'n' Ivy

Presented for the last time, Poise 'n' Ivy pops concert marked two other milestones: Mary Maude Moore's last performance before taking her leave of absence and the last time the Impromptuos sang together.

Dressed in formals and tuxedos, men's and women's glee clubs and Impromptuos, under Miss Moore's direction, delivered light songs. Poise 'n' Ivy dancers, coordinated by Suzanne Resler, accompanied some of the numbers and presented several of their own.

More than $800 taken in for admissions was given to the Wooster Fund to be used for National Defense loans.

To open the show, Poise 'n' Ivy dancers join the entire group in "Fifty Nifty United States."

In a style familiar to her students, Miss Moore alternately coaxes, pleads and bosses them into giving the sound she wants.

Giving one of the numbers choreographed by Suzanne Resler, four of the dancers add color to "Step in Time" from "Mary Poppins."

Climaxing a semester of classroom training, more than 200 voices of the men's and women's glee clubs and the Impromptuos, assisted by a group of dancers, made the rafters of Sheridan Coliseum ring with music at the finale of a popular but short-lived tradition, the Poise 'n Ivy show.

FHS Coed Snares Miss Hays Honor

Winning the opportunity to represent the city of Hays and vie for the Miss Kansas title, Pat Spomer, FHS senior, was crowned Miss Hays of 1966. Candidates, including 13 FHS students, participated in the Miss Hays pageant parade, interviews, talent show and beauty contests.

With her honor, Miss Spomer was awarded prizes including a $100 scholarship to the college of her choice, a $100 wardrobe, $100 in jewelry and a trip to Pratt for the Miss Kansas pageant.

In a native atmosphere of island music, guests received leis at the Memorial Union Hawaiian Luau. Hawaiian food was eaten from low tables in native fashion. Cynthia Dalrymple, performing some of the ancient Hawaiian dances, and the Impromptuos provided the evening's entertainment.

In conjunction with the Luau gourmet dinner, the Memorial Union sponsored the annual Village Art Sale. Student art works for sale were displayed from clotheslines strung across the lobby.

Dressed in appropriate clothes and draped with leis, guests enjoy their Luau meal.

Attitudes Run Gamut During Final Tests

Evoking a variety of attitudes and emotions, spring finals arrived once again to plague the students. Some met the challenge well, reviewed for their tests, and came out in grand shape. Seniors took comfort in the anticipation of graduation.

Burning books or simply refusing to study were two of the less profitable actions taken by students.

More worthy satisfaction is felt by seniors at a robe-fitting.

Seniors wait in line before their procession into Lewis Field Stadium. Weather was kind enough to permit both ceremonies to be held outdoors.

Missouri Man Speaks To Degree Candidates

Dr. Robert P. Foster, president of Northwest Missouri State College, Maryville, delivered the 1966 Commencement address. Baccalaureate sermon was given by the Rev. Warren W. Schmidt, pastor, Messiah Lutheran Church, Hays.

Presentation of 528 degrees was made at the 63rd annual exercises. Sixteen seniors were graduated with distinction.

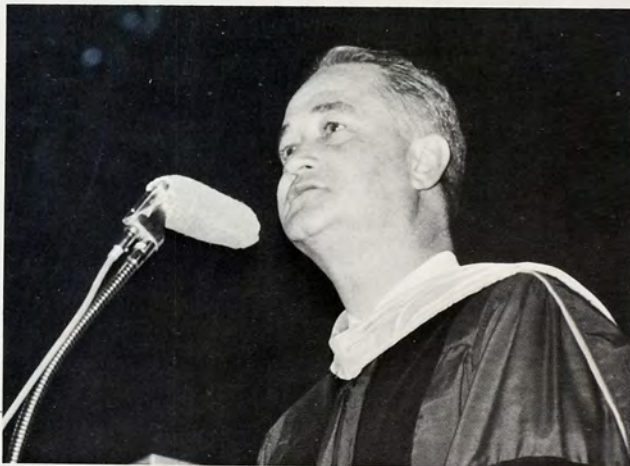

Alumni Achievement Awards were presented to Dr. Viola C. Ames, associate professor of psychology at Ohio State University, and Vinton D. Carver, president of the Atherton, Calif., division of Litton Industries.

As shadows lengthened, graduates and faculty filed onto the field, the band played, the choir sang and Commencement began.

Bottom: Following tradition, Commencement week activities open with Baccalaureate service. The Rev. Warren Schmidt gave the sermon.

ROYALTY

All the performers are important to the college show, but each year a favored few are elevated to stardom by their fellow students. These headliners add glamor and distinction to college life.

You will now meet these celebrities who for a few precious moments experienced the glitter and thrill of being . . . in the spotlight.

ADVERTISING AND INDEX

Playing an indirect but vital role in the college show is the surrounding city of Hays.

Through the numerous services and products offered by businessmen and the support which Hays citizens lend to the show, Fort Hays State gains immeasurable benefits. In return, the college contributes important cultural, intellectual, social and financial stimulation to the community.

This interdependence of the college, merchants and other townspeople has proved a source of community livelihood and has produced a strong bond between Fort Hays State and . . . patrons.

Endowment Assn. Disperses Scholarships, Loans

Organized to collect and disperse private funds to provide support for the college, the Fort Hays State Endowment Assn. acts as a clearing house for all scholarships, loan funds and contributions in order to supplement state funds in carrying out the college program.

Establishing a goal of $90,000 for the year, the association distributed its income among scholarships and achievement programs. It contributed generously to the National Defense Loan Fund, where each dollar was matched with $9 of Federal money and loaned to students according to a low-interest plan.

Students shared in the program through "buck-passing" each semester, and alumni and friends of the college contributed through memorial funds, scholarships, outright gifts and in numerous other ways. Kent Collier served as executive secretary of the association.

Student committee members check times during bicycle race trials for the Fort Hays Furlough, sponsored by the Endowment Assn. to raise money for scholarships.

Alumni Assn.

All students who have attended Fort Hays State for a year or more are eligible to join the Alumni Assn. Endeavoring to maintain lifelong contacts, the association offers both annual and life memberships and urges students to keep in touch with FHS.

Homecoming, Parents Day and Commencement are special days which draw alumni back to campus. The K-Letter, departmental newsletters and the Alumni News all strive to keep graduates and former students informed concerning the college's development and progress.

Each spring a committee selects one or more alumni to receive the Alumni Achievement Award, which is presented at Commencement exercises.

Harold Stones was executive secretary of the Alumni Assn. President of the organization was Carl Sperry, St. Francis.

FINALE

The 1966 Reveille has meant many things to me—late nights, late mornings, a decent cup of coffee, a paycheck every month. It has also meant some work, some determination, many mistakes and new friends.

Many people have played integral parts in the production of this book. To them I wish to express my gratitude, and in some places, pleas for forgiveness:

- the entire Reveille staff, especially those who stepped in at the last, and those who stayed until the end;
- the news service faculty and staff;
- the Leader staff;

- Leon Maxson and his photographers, especially Joe Fox and Lorraine Jackson, who always seemed to know just what pictures I wanted, even when I didn't;
- Ralph Hormel, for artwork;

- Paul McClellan and Taylor Publishing Co.;
- and Delma Studios.

Thanks also must go to family and personal friends—Mr. and Mrs. Robert Parker, Janis Brown, Anne Schroeder, and John Thomas—for patience.

Most important, my biggest thanks go to two hearty people who endured my mistakes, depressions, reversed decisions, temper and general bad mood without complaining—Katherine Rogers and Ron Fischli. Without Ron, there wouldn't be a word in the Reveille. Without Mrs. Rogers, there wouldn't be a Reveille. She has been not only an adviser in the best sense of the word, but a friend as well.

The purpose of this book has been two-fold: First, to set forth a record of 1966 at FHS, and also, to remind us that, although activities greatly supplement our education, pure academics must remain the student's foremost concern. A lighthearted subject, the show, was used to illustrate this vital concept.

So, this book is meant for all, whether participants or interested bystanders, who are concerned with the college purpose.

It is my sincerest wish that we have created a Reveille which captures the images of the 1966 FHS College Show.

Relieved and delighted, the editor places the last shipment of Reveille pages on a train bound for the publishing company.
